MATCH PREVIEW

LOOKING TO TURN IT AROUND

The Portland Thorns will enter Sunday's road contest against the Utah Royals looking for three points in hopes of snapping a three-game winless streak (1D, 2L). If Portland can get a win on Sunday, it would be the first three points collected since the 4-0 home victory against Racing Louisville at the beginning of July and the first road win since a 0-2 shutout against Chicago Stars in early May.

While the Thorns did ultimately draw in its match against Gotham (2-2), the team showcased a fighting spirit to find itself back into the match and regain a lead over one of the league's toughest sides. Up against a Utah side that sits near the top of the NWSL table but did lose in midweek action, the Thorns have in front of them an opportunity to get itself back on track, improve upon its road form and make a statement.

HISTORY VS UTAH

The Royals have historically been a tough rival for the Thorns, splitting their matches with a 4W-4L-6D record across all NWSL competitions.

In their first meeting this season, Portland midfielder Olivia Moultrie opened the match scoring before Utah managed to get two on the board unanswered. As the match was ending, the Thorns found their break in the 91st minute when forward Sophia Wilson stepped up to convert a penalty and salvage a point from a tough battle.

Now Portland return to America First Field after winning their last contest at the venue in April 2025, with forward Reilyn Turner scoring the lone goal in that encounter. (Turner currently remains out with a knee injury for at least another three weeks). That win last year was Portland's first ever at the stadium and there is desire to make it two in a row at America First Field for the first time this Sunday. Additionally on the last victory, it was Portland's first overall win against Utah since the 2020 Fall Series (3-0) and first league win since July 2018 (4-0).

A QUICK RECAP

As previously mentioned, Portland enters this weekend's match after their 2-2 draw at home vs Gotham. Though Portland conceded early, rookie midfielder Renee Lyles — making her first NWSL start — dribbled around her defender to make space for herself near the far-left side of the box and chipped the ball into the far-right corner to equalize. Forward Pietra Tordin got the assist on the goal, her league-leading seventh of the year.

It would not take long after the start of the second half when Lyles would once again help the Thorns get on the scoreboard to regain the lead for the first time in the match, passing the ball to midfielder Jessie Fleming whose shot outside the box deflected into the net in the 53rd minute.

Gotham forward Sam Kerr leveled it back up in the 62nd minute and from there, the match remained a gridlock fight that would end in both sides splitting points.

A HISTORIC PERFORMANCE

Renee Lyles' first career start was something she was "dreaming of for a long time" and she herself admitted that the performance spiked her own self-confidence and impact she can make on the pitch. In fact, her first start was actually quite historic. Lyles became only the second Thorns player in club history to score and assist in her first career start, joining Payton Linnehan (2024-25) who did so on May 1, 2024.

The match was a culmination of Lyles' hard work. Having joined the Thorns as a non-roster invitee during the preseason, she impressed the technical staff with her professionalism, personality, and performances, leading the Thorns in preseason scoring with four goals that included a hat trick against Monterrey. She earned a short-term contract through May and made her professional debut in April in a 2-0 road win against Angel City. Her consistency and efforts earned her yet another extension in June, this time extended through the end of the season. Lyles has earned her opportunities, and she made sure to pay that trust back against Gotham.

PLAYMAKING IMPACT

Forward Pietra Tordin and midfielder Jessie Fleming — who contributed to Portland's goals this past weekend — have been two of the team's most consistent and contributing figures in 2026 and they will be looked upon again to help the Thorns find a result.

Tordin has been having an incredible sophomore season on the front line, scoring four goals and laying up her league-leading seventh assist of the year to Renee Lyles against Gotham. The 21-year-old leads Portland in total goal contributions with 11, which is tied for third-most in the NWSL alongside Kansas City Current's Temwa Chawinga. Only Orlando Pride's Barbara Banda (13) and Washington Spirit's Trinity Rodman (12) have more.

Meanwhile for Fleming, the Canadian international has been a pivotal orchestrator in the midfield for Portland in 2026. She is vital leader on and off the pitch and dictates Portland's tempo in central midfield, aiding offensive link up play while simultaneously serving as an impactful line of defense. She scored her first goal of the year against Gotham and is Portland's sole iron woman (1,530 minutes played), one of only five players in the league to contest every possible minute in 2026.

SITTING OUT

Defender Jayden Perry will not be available for selection this Sunday as she serves a one-game suspension after picking up a red card last weekend against Gotham.

2026 TECHNICAL LEADERSHIP

JEFF AGOOS, PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER OF SOCCER OPERATIONS

Jeff Agoos was named President and General Manager of Soccer Operations for Portland Thorns FC on January 7, 2025. A legendary figure in American soccer, Agoos brings unparalleled expertise and an extensive track record of success to his leadership role with the Thorns.

Agoos is one of the most accomplished players in Major League Soccer (MLS) history, with a career that spanned more than a decade at the highest levels of the game. As a standout defender for the U.S. Men's National Team, Agoos earned 134 caps and represented his country in three FIFA World Cups—1994, 1998, and 2002. His defensive prowess and leadership on the international stage were integral to the success of the U.S. during his tenure, and he remains a central figure in the country's soccer history.

A key contributor to the dominance of MLS in its early years, Agoos played for two of the league's most successful franchises—D.C. United and the San Jose Earthquakes. During his career, he amassed five MLS Cup championships, the most by any player in league history. His time with D.C. United saw him win MLS titles in 1996, 1997, and 1999, while his later years with San Jose were highlighted by additional titles in 2001 and 2003, cementing his place as one of the league's most decorated players. In recognition of his extraordinary career, Agoos was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2009.

Following his retirement from playing in 2005, Agoos transitioned to executive leadership, where he has continued to shape the landscape of American soccer. He served as Technical Director for the New York Red Bulls, a role in which he was responsible for overseeing player development, team operations, and strategic direction. Most recently, Agoos held the position of Senior Vice President of Competition, Operations, and Medical at Major League Soccer. In this capacity, he played a pivotal role in the league's growth, overseeing key areas such as competition integrity, operations, and player welfare, all while enhancing MLS's global standing.

MIKE NORRIS, TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Mike Norris was named Technical Director for the Portland Thorns FC after serving as the team's fifth head coach. In his new role, Norris will focus on scouting, talent acquisition, and player development. As head coach, he posted a record of 10-7-8 in 25 NWSL matches.

Before joining the Thorns, Norris spent eight years with Canada Soccer, where he served as the set play and goalkeeper coach for the Canada Women's National Team from 2019 to 2021. During that time, Canada won a gold medal at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Born in Ashington and raised in Newcastle upon Tyne, Norris brings a wealth of experience in soccer both internationally and domestically to his role with the Thorns.

ROBERT VILAHAMN, HEAD COACH

Robert Vilahamn was appointed Portland Thorns Head Coach on March 4, 2026.

Robert arrives with managerial experience at the highest levels of the women's game, possesses a strong track record of helping players grow, and brings new global perspectives and insights to strengthen the team environment.

He most recently served as the Head Coach of Tottenham Hotspur Women between 2023-25, leading the team to their first Women's FA Cup final in his first season. He was also the Head Coach for the BK Häcken Women between 2021-23. Under his leadership, BK Häcken clinched UEFA Women's Champions League qualification each season and made consecutive Swedish Cup finals in 2022 and 2023.
