SWAN STATS

BUILDING A LEGACY

The Legacy played their first ever game at Gillette Stadium on Saturday, March 14, 2026. Boston faced off against Gotham FC, drawing a crowd of 30,207 and setting a new NWSL record for inaugural home opener attendance.

HOMETOWN HEROES

Boston has scored in eight straight home games. Boston has scored a total of 15 goals at home this season, second most in the league behind Kansas City's 16 goals at home.

THE BENCH MOB

Sammy Smith's goal against Washington 7/19 was Boston's 4th goal from a substitute this season, second only to San Diego's six. Four different players have scored as substitutes for Boston this season, the most players to score off the bench by any NWSL team.

PK PRODIGIES

Boston has a 100% penalty conversion rate (4/4), which ranks second in the league behind Utah's 5/5.

PASS IT ON

The Legacy have completed 7509 passes, ranking 4th in the NWSL, and have a 78.5% pass completion rate, which ranks 6th in the league.

MURPHY'S LAW

Casey Murphy is currently ranked 3rd in saves among all NWSL goalkeepers, denying 58 shots so far this season.

SHOOTERS SHOOT

Aissata Traore's 39 shots on the season rank 4th among NWSL players.

CLOCKING IN

Midfielders Annie Karich and Alba Cano are the only field players to have started all 17 games for the Legacy this season. Karich and Cano have logged 1619 and 1500 minutes, respectively.

AIR MAIL

On 8/2 at Denver, Casey Murphy delivered a punt to Sammy Smith at the opposite end of the field, leading to a goal. Murphy became just the 4th goalkeeper in NWSL history to record an assist during the regular season.
