MATCH PREVIEW

CONSECUTIVE WINS & HOME FORM

The Portland Thorns secured its second-straight win last Saturday when it stunned Orlando Pride late in the match to claim a 2-1 victory. It was the first time since late April that the Thorns strung together back-to-back wins and they extended their home league unbeaten run to 12 games (an ongoing club record dating back to September 2025). The Thorns have been strong at Providence Park in 2026 (6W, 3D) and they are back home again this Saturday to host Denver Summit FC for the first time ever. A win against Denver would see Portland record three consecutive victories for the first time since early May.

A STORYBOOK RETURN

It was a magical night at Providence Park last weekend when forward Caiya Hanks scored the stoppage time winner against Orlando in the 96th minute to secure three points, the latest game-winning goal in Thorns regular season history per Opta.

Hanks had been out for over a year after enduring an ACL injury last June. The 2024 MAC Hermann Finalist joined Portland last year and came out flying her rookie season, scoring twice and providing an assist in her 11 NWSL appearances (starting in seven) before the injury. After months of hard work and rehabilitation, all the emotions poured out on the field last week when her shot landed in the back of the net. Teammates and staff surrounded her in celebration and tears while fans inside Providence Park roared in support after witnessing an impactful return to the pitch. In her own words at the post-match press conference: "It meant the world to me."

PLAYMAKING LEADER

Forward Pietra Tordin is on the verge of league and club history. The 21-year-old has been having an incredible season for Portland, tied for the league lead with nine assists and the sole leader in total goal contributions for Portland with 16 (7 G, 9 A).

The league assist record is 10, set by Tobin Heath in 2016 for Portland and equalized by Croix Bethune in 2024 for Washington Spirit. Bethune, now with Kansas City Current, is tied for assists alongside Tordin in 2026.

The club record for most goal contributions in a single season belongs to Sophia Wilson, who combined for 18 in 2024 with 12 goals and six assists. Tordin would need two more goal contributions to tie or break this record, though it should be noted that Wilson currently has 11 goal contributions in 2026 (team-leading nine goals and two assists) and still has time to equal or surpass the 18-mark record.

A CRUCIAL OPENER

The match between Portland and Orlando was tightly contested and it was forward Deyna Castellanos who opened the scoring on the night in the 56th minute. Finding space for herself at the top right corner of Orlando's box, Castellanos curled the ball into the far-left corner to send the fans into pandemonium. It was the Venezuelan international's first goal of the year and her first since last November at home against Houston Dash (2-0 W).

WELCOME TO PROVIDENCE PARK

As previously mentioned, the Thorns host Denver for the first time since the expansion side joined the league this year. When hosting NWSL teams at Providence Park for the first time, Portland are historically 10W-5L-1D. Bay FC in 2024 (1-3 L) was the last time Portland welcomed an expansion team to Providence Park.

In their initial meeting in Denver last month, the Thorns had gained the lead first when Sophia Wilson converted her penalty in the first half. However, the Summit — who were playing their first game at Centennial Stadium — came back and scored twice unanswered to take the win. The Thorns now look to even things up in the reverse fixture this weekend.

FORMER THORNS IN THE BUILDING

Saturday will see many former Thorns players back at Providence Park. Janine Sonis (2022-24), Abby Smith (2021-22) and Yazmeen Ryan (2022) previously repped the Rose City and were part of the 2022 NWSL Championship winning roster.

Current USWNT and Denver captain Lindsey Heaps could potentially make her return to Providence Park for NWSL action for the first time since 2021 if she is available for selection. She was a key figure in Portland's midfield between 2016-21, helping the Thorns lift the two NWSL Shields and the 2017 NWSL Championship.

The Thorns will also recognize the incredible career and achievements of Tobin Heath, who signed a ceremonial one-day contract to officially retire as a Portland Thorn. The 2016 U.S. Soccer Women's Player of the Year played for Portland between 2013-20 and was key in the Club's early journey to establish itself as a premier team in the NWSL.

A 2026 National Soccer Hall of Fame inductee, Heath helped the Thorns win two NWSL Championships (2013, 2017) and two NWSL Shields (2016, 2021). For the USWNT, she lifted two consecutive FIFA Women's World Cups (2015, 2019), two consecutive Olympic gold medals (2008, 2012) and a bronze Olympic medal (2021).

EXTENDING HER STAY

MATCH PREVIEW

On Monday, the Portland Thorns announced that it had extended rookie midfielder Renee Lyles through the 2027 season.

Lyles joined the Thorns during the 2026 preseason as a non-roster invitee and impressed the Portland staff to earn her first professional contract. She led Portland in preseason scoring with four goals including a hatrick against C.F. Monterrey at Providence Park. Lyles has made seven appearances for the Thorns so far and had a player of the match performance when she got her first career goal and assist in a 2-2 draw against Gotham FC last month.

BACK ON THE SIDELINE

After serving a one-match suspension, Head Coach Robert Vilahamn will be back on the sideline for Portland this weekend against Denver.

A BRAND NEW HOME

On Saturday morning, RAJ Sports — who own both the Thorns and the WNBA's Portland Fire — held the grand opening for the Kaiser Permanente Performance Center, a state-of-the-art 63,000 square-foot campus that will serve as the sporting home for both teams.

It is the world's first dual-sport women's performance center and for the Thorns, they have at their disposal two full-sized soccer pitches (one grass, one turf) with an outdoor training zone, a 5,000 square-foot training facility, and many more elite offerings and spaces that will enhance match day preparation and personal recovery.

2026 TECHNICAL LEADERSHIP

JEFF AGOOS, PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER OF SOCCER OPERATIONS

Jeff Agoos was named President and General Manager of Soccer Operations for Portland Thorns FC on January 7, 2025. A legendary figure in American soccer, Agoos brings unparalleled expertise and an extensive track record of success to his leadership role with the Thorns.

Agoos is one of the most accomplished players in Major League Soccer (MLS) history, with a career that spanned more than a decade at the highest levels of the game. As a standout defender for the U.S. Men's National Team, Agoos earned 134 caps and represented his country in three FIFA World Cups—1994, 1998, and 2002. His defensive prowess and leadership on the international stage were integral to the success of the U.S. during his tenure, and he remains a central figure in the country's soccer history.

A key contributor to the dominance of MLS in its early years, Agoos played for two of the league's most successful franchises—D.C. United and the San Jose Earthquakes. During his career, he amassed five MLS Cup championships, the most by any player in league history. His time with D.C. United saw him win MLS titles in 1996, 1997, and 1999, while his later years with San Jose were highlighted by additional titles in 2001 and 2003, cementing his place as one of the league's most decorated players. In recognition of his extraordinary career, Agoos was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2009.

Following his retirement from playing in 2005, Agoos transitioned to executive leadership, where he has continued to shape the landscape of American soccer. He served as Technical Director for the New York Red Bulls, a role in which he was responsible for overseeing player development, team operations, and strategic direction. Most recently, Agoos held the position of Senior Vice President of Competition, Operations, and Medical at Major League Soccer. In this capacity, he played a pivotal role in the league's growth, overseeing key areas such as competition integrity, operations, and player welfare, all while enhancing MLS's global standing.

MIKE NORRIS, TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Mike Norris was named Technical Director for the Portland Thorns FC after serving as the team's fifth head coach. In his new role, Norris will focus on scouting, talent acquisition, and player development. As head coach, he posted a record of 10-7-8 in 25 NWSL matches.

Before joining the Thorns, Norris spent eight years with Canada Soccer, where he served as the set play and goalkeeper coach for the Canada Women's National Team from 2019 to 2021. During that time, Canada won a gold medal at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Born in Ashington and raised in Newcastle upon Tyne, Norris brings a wealth of experience in soccer both internationally and domestically to his role with the Thorns.

ROBERT VILAHAMN, HEAD COACH

Robert Vilahamn was appointed Portland Thorns Head Coach on March 4, 2026.

Robert arrives with managerial experience at the highest levels of the women's game, possesses a strong track record of helping players grow, and brings new global perspectives and insights to strengthen the team environment.

He most recently served as the Head Coach of Tottenham Hotspur Women between 2023-25, leading the team to their first Women's FA Cup final in his first season. He was also the Head Coach for the BK Häcken Women between 2021-23. Under his leadership, BK Häcken clinched UEFA Women's Champions League qualification each season and made consecutive Swedish Cup finals in 2022 and 2023.
