FAST FACTS

UPCOMING MILESTONES

Several Spirit players could achieve regular season career milestones this weekend with a goal contribution. Forward Gift Monday is one goal away from reaching ten in her NWSL career. With a score on Sunday, she would join forwards Ashley Hatch and Trinity Rodman as the only players on the current Spirit roster with double-digit goals for the club. Three Spirit players are currently one assist away from ten in their regular season careers: Hatch, forward Rosemonde Kouassi and defender Tara Rudd. Rodman is the only current Spirit player to have reached this threshold, she currently holds the all-time club record with 23 assists.

SOMETHING'S GOTTA GIVE

The Spirit has earned more points away from home than any other team in the NWSL this season, tallying 21 points through 11 road matches with a 6-2-3 record. This is the third consecutive season Washington has surpassed 20 road points. The side also has 69 away points in total since the start of the 2024 campaign, the most in the NWSL across that span. Portland, however, is unbeaten across its last 14 home matches with ten wins and four draws dating back to last September. This season, Thorns FC has hosted six teams that made the NWSL Playoffs last season and has earned five wins and a draw while outscoring opponents 14-3 at Providence Park.

MATCHUP HISTORY

The Spirit holds a 6-16-9 all-time record in matches played against Portland Thorns FC with a -22 goal differential (31-53). Not included in this record is a 0-3 forfeit loss for the Spirit in 2021. Washington has won three of its last five meetings with Portland, including last season's 2-0 semifinal win at Audi Field to advance to the club's second consecutive NWSL Championship. However, the Spirit has not ever won in Portland, holding a 0-9-5 competitive record (0-10-5 with forfeit included) in the city. In the last matchup between the sides back in March, Thorns FC took a 1-0 win at Audi Field in both teams' season opener.

The Washington Spirit's Guide to D.C.

As our local NWSL team gears up for Sunday's game, we asked some players to share their favorite things to do, eat, and experience in the DMV.

Washington City Paper, August 28, 2026 - The Washington Spirit, your beloved local National Women's Soccer League team, was one of the league's original groups, founded in 2012 and launched in 2013. They've reached the NWSL Championship, which takes place at Audi Field this year, four times, and won it in 2021. Along with U.S. Women's National Team star Trinity Rodman (the celly queen), the team features six African players, two Italians, and a host of other international players.

But who are the players off the field and what do they love about D.C.? City Paper spoke to nearly a dozen Spirit members, including USWNT players Tara Rudd, Hal Hershfelt, and Andi Sullivan, to find out their favorite spots to hike, eat, and chill. Spoiler alert: They love Georgetown, carbs, and winning. (Oh and also, a celly is a goal celebration you perform after scoring!)

Hal Hershfelt, #17, midfielder

Hometown: Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Best Spirit game memory: 2024 semifinal, nail biter vs Gotham.

RECENT SPIRIT MILESTONES

- July 26: Forward Sofia Cantore scored the match-winning goal over Denver, her fourth strike from outside the box since she entered the league last August, more than anyone in the NWSL in that time frame.
- July 26: Forward Trinity Rodman dished out the match-winning assist, the tenth such assist of her career, making her the first player in league history to reach that mark.
- July 26: Head Coach Adrián González earned his 25th regular season win with the Spirit in just his 46th match at the helm, passing Vlatko Andonovski as the fastest coach in league history to reach the milestone.
- July 29: Forward Trinity Rodman tallied her eighth goal of the regular season, matching her single-season career high. The goal was the tenth match-winner of Rodman's regular season career.
- July 29: Paige Metayer provided the match-winning assist on Rodman's goal, the tenth career goal contribution for Metayer in a Spirit kit.
- July 29: Goalkeeper Sandy MacIver collected her eighth clean sheet of the regular season and surpassed Stephanie Labbé for second-most career regular season shutouts in club history.
- August 8: Forward Trinity Rodman scored her ninth goal of the season at home against North Carolina, setting a new single season career high.
- August 8: Forward Sofia Cantore scored her fifth goal of the regular season, also a new single season NWSL career high.
- August 16: Defender Tara Rudd reached 10,000 career regular season minutes played in the second half of the 1-1 draw with Angel City. Rudd became the fifth player to play 10,000 minutes with the Spirit, the most such players to reach this mark at one club.
- August 16: Forward Trinity Rodman tallied her tenth goal of the season in the 1-1 away draw with Angel City. This is the first time Rodman has reached double digit scoring in a season in her career.
- August 16: Rudd assisted Rodman's goal, Rudd's second assist of the season and ninth of her regular season career, moving her into a tie for fifth-most assists in Spirit history with forwards Ashley Hatch and Rosemonde Kouassi.
- August 30: Paige Metayer scored her first goal of the season in match-winning fashion against Bay FC. Chasing down a rebound after a Trinity Rodman shot off the crossbar, Metayer put the ball over the goal line with her abdomen. The goal was also Metayer's first since August 2024 and the Spirit's first of the season not to be scored by a foot/head.
- August 30: Goalkeeper Sandy MacIver recorded her ninth clean sheet of the regular season in a 1-0 win over Bay FC, tying the club record for most in a single season (Aubrey Kingsbury, 2019).
