MATCH PREVIEW

COMING HOME CONFIDENT

The Portland Thorns put up an impressive 4-1 win on the road against Orlando Pride last Saturday and are unbeaten in their last three away fixtures (2W, 1D) for the first time since early May.

Additionally, the Thorns recorded their first 12+ win and 42+ points season since 2021 and 42+ goals for the first time since 2023.

With their second victory of the year against Orlando, Portland snapped a three-match winless run to get back in the win column ahead of a two-game home stretch starting with their first meeting against Houston Dash this Saturday.

MVP PERFORMANCE

In her 100th career league match, forward Sophia Wilson was named NWSL's Player of the Week for her performance against Orlando that saw her register a goal and two assists to lead the Thorns to victory. It was the seventh time in her career she recorded at least one goal and assist in the same match, and the third in which she had a multi-assist game. She was honored with NWSL Assist of the Week as well.

Wilson's game-winning goal from the penalty spot — the 11th penalty goal of her regular season career — made her Portland's all-time leader in penalty kick goals. She boasts a 100% conversion record throughout her career and is 5/5 in penalty goals this year, a club record for single-season penalties scored.

Lastly, Wilson surpassed the 75 goal contributions mark with her performance. She has combined for 76 goal contributions (56 G, 19 A) since her regular season debut on May 16, 2021. Her goal tally is the second-most in league history across 100 games.

BACK ON THE SCORESHEET

For the first time since November 1, 2024, forward Morgan Weaver scored a goal for the Portland Thorns. She shot the ball from a long-range out to score Portland's third against Orlando, her first goal after a long battle of recovery from a season-ending knee injury sustained last preseason. Interestingly, the last time she scored was also the last time that she and Wilson scored in the same match, something they have achieved seven times in their NWSL careers.

Rookie midfielder Renee Lyles also found herself on the Thorns scoresheet, her second goal of 2026 and her first since July 24 against Gotham FC that also saw her bag her first career assist.

IMPACT FROM THE MIDFIELD

Midfielder Nina Nijstad got things going early for Portland against Orlando, scoring her first NWSL career goal in the third minute of the match. It feels as it has been a long time coming for the Dutch international, who has been much more present in front of goal over the last few weeks.

A mid-season pickup, Nijstad has adapted quickly to the NWSL and strengthened Portland's midfield with strong contributions on both ends of the ball. Midfielder Jessie Fleming — who has played every possible minute for Portland this season — is able to take on more offensive work knowing that Nijstad can slot in defensively when needed, improving Portland's ability to threaten the opponent.

LOGGED THE FIRST

Midfielder Cassandra Bogere was the one who laid the ball for Weaver to score her first goal since returning from injury. It was the Swedish international's first career NWSL assist.

MILESTONE WATCH

Thorns players are up for some milestones as soon as this weekend against Houston.

- With her next start, Fleming will have logged her 50th consecutive league start.
- Wilson has 13 goals in 2026 and needs one more to equalize her career single season high of 14 from 2022, notably her league MVP season.
- With one more goal OR assist, Wilson will equalize Portland's single season goal contributions record of 18. Wilson set that record back in 2024, the year she finished fourth in Balon D'Or voting. It should be noted that forward Pietra Tordin is not far behind with 16 goal contributions this season.
- With her next assist, Tordin will tie Portland's single season assist record of 10, set by Tobin Heath in 2016. 10 is also the NWSL single season assist record.
- With their next shutout, Portland would become the first NWSL team to reach 100 regular season clean sheets.
- With their next penalty kick goal, Portland would become the first NWSL team to score 50 regular season penalties.

SERIES HISTORY

Portland and Houston meet for the first time this year, the only matchup in the NWSL that had not yet been played in 2026. Portland enters Saturday's contest with four-straight victories against Houston and has not fallen at home to the Dash in three matches dating back to 2023 (2W, 1D).

The last time these two sides met was at the very end of the 2025 campaign that saw Portland score twice at home to clinch a third-place league finish. The Thorns beat Houston on the road earlier that year 4-1, with Houston getting on the scoresheet via own goal. Interestingly, a Houston player has not scored on Portland since April 20, 2024 when the Thorns beat the Dash at home 4-1.

Historically, the Thorns are dominant against Houston. They are unbeaten in 23 (18 W, 5D) of their previous 29 meetings with Houston across all NWSL competitions and are 9W-3L-1D in matches played at Providence Park.

MATCH PREVIEW

The following match will be the 30th meeting between Portland and Houston, the 5th opponent Portland has played 30+ times in NWSL competitions alongside Seattle (44), Chicago (36), Gotham (35) and Washington (33).

REPPING PORTLAND ON THE WORLD STAGE

Portland forward Valerin Lobo has started every match of Colombia's campaign at the 2026 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Poland, scoring the game-winning goal to send her nation to the semifinals for second time in history and first since 2010 in Germany. Though Colombia were knocked out in the semis by North Korea, they are expected to be in action one more time this weekend for the 3rd Place match against Italy. Prior to 2026, Colombia's best performance was 4th in 2010.

Official international call ups for the upcoming October window also began to trickle in and more are expected in the coming days. Fleming was the first to get the call this week as she will represent Canada in series of friendlies against Denmark. Goalkeeper Mackenzie Arnold was also called up for two friendlies with Australia, who are set to face Germany and Haiti.

2026 TECHNICAL LEADERSHIP

JEFF AGOOS, PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER OF SOCCER OPERATIONS

Jeff Agoos was named President and General Manager of Soccer Operations for Portland Thorns FC on January 7, 2025. A legendary figure in American soccer, Agoos brings unparalleled expertise and an extensive track record of success to his leadership role with the Thorns.

Agoos is one of the most accomplished players in Major League Soccer (MLS) history, with a career that spanned more than a decade at the highest levels of the game. As a standout defender for the U.S. Men's National Team, Agoos earned 134 caps and represented his country in three FIFA World Cups—1994, 1998, and 2002. His defensive prowess and leadership on the international stage were integral to the success of the U.S. during his tenure, and he remains a central figure in the country's soccer history.

A key contributor to the dominance of MLS in its early years, Agoos played for two of the league's most successful franchises—D.C. United and the San Jose Earthquakes. During his career, he amassed five MLS Cup championships, the most by any player in league history. His time with D.C. United saw him win MLS titles in 1996, 1997, and 1999, while his later years with San Jose were highlighted by additional titles in 2001 and 2003, cementing his place as one of the league's most decorated players. In recognition of his extraordinary career, Agoos was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2009.

Following his retirement from playing in 2005, Agoos transitioned to executive leadership, where he has continued to shape the landscape of American soccer. He served as Technical Director for the New York Red Bulls, a role in which he was responsible for overseeing player development, team operations, and strategic direction. Most recently, Agoos held the position of Senior Vice President of Competition, Operations, and Medical at Major League Soccer. In this capacity, he played a pivotal role in the league's growth, overseeing key areas such as competition integrity, operations, and player welfare, all while enhancing MLS's global standing.

MIKE NORRIS, TECHNICAL DIRECTOR

Mike Norris was named Technical Director for the Portland Thorns FC after serving as the team's fifth head coach. In his new role, Norris will focus on scouting, talent acquisition, and player development. As head coach, he posted a record of 10-7-8 in 25 NWSL matches.

Before joining the Thorns, Norris spent eight years with Canada Soccer, where he served as the set play and goalkeeper coach for the Canada Women's National Team from 2019 to 2021. During that time, Canada won a gold medal at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Born in Ashington and raised in Newcastle upon Tyne, Norris brings a wealth of experience in soccer both internationally and domestically to his role with the Thorns.

ROBERT VILAHAMN, HEAD COACH

Robert Vilahamn was appointed Portland Thorns Head Coach on March 4, 2026.

Robert arrives with managerial experience at the highest levels of the women's game, possesses a strong track record of helping players grow, and brings new global perspectives and insights to strengthen the team environment.

He most recently served as the Head Coach of Tottenham Hotspur Women between 2023-25, leading the team to their first Women's FA Cup final in his first season. He was also the Head Coach for the BK Häcken Women between 2021-23. Under his leadership, BK Häcken clinched UEFA Women's Champions League qualification each season and made consecutive Swedish Cup finals in 2022 and 2023.
