Africa Evidence Week 2026 Social Media Toolkit

Welcome to the Africa Evidence Week 2026 social media toolkit for our call for content. These ready-to-use messages help contributors, AEN members and partners promote the call and encourage their networks to share their evidence. Feel free to adapt them to your own voice and brand, in English or French. You will find all other details on our website.

Our social channels

- X | @Africa_evidence
- LinkedIn | Africa Evidence Network

*Remember to use the official hashtag #AfEW2026 in all your posts to increase visibility, and be sure to tag us!

For Contributors:

Sample posts

Keep your submission a surprise. Share your topic if you like, and invite people to stay tuned for the full content during the Week.

1. I have just submitted my content to Africa Evidence Week 2026 🎉 My topic is [your topic], and I can't wait to share more during the Week, online from 30 November to 4 December. Stay tuned! Have evidence to share too? The call is open until 22 November https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines [Tag the AEN] #AfEW2026 #EIDM

2. We are taking part in Africa Evidence Week 2026! Our team will be sharing evidence on [your topic]. Stay tuned to discover the full story from 30 November to 4 December, and share your own work before 22 November https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines [Tag the AEN] #AfEW2026 #EIDM

3. Something is coming to Africa Evidence Week 2026 👀 We have submitted our contribution and will reveal it during the Week. Until then, the call for content is open until 22 November, so why not share yours? https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines [Tag the AEN] #AfEW2026 #EIDM

Images (choose black or white):

I'm sharing my evidence

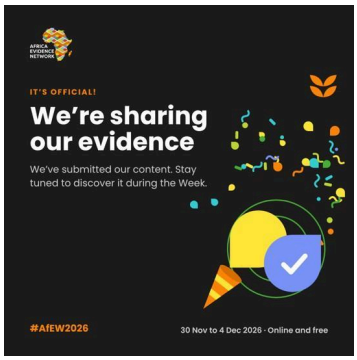

Black Download

White Download

We're sharing our evidence

Black Download

White Download

For AEN Members and Partners:

Sample posts

1. The call for content for Africa Evidence Week 2026 is open 📢 Blogs, videos, webinars, live fireside chats, publications, stories of change, visual arts, photography and creative storytelling are all welcome. If you work with evidence in Africa, this is your platform. Submit by 22 November https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines
   [Tag the AEN] #AfEW2026 #EIDM

2. We are proud to support Africa Evidence Week 2026, which brings the African evidence community together online from 30 November to 4 December. Know someone with a story of how evidence made a difference? Share the call with them!
   https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines
   [Tag the AEN] #AfEW2026 #EIDM

3. From research to real decisions, African evidence moves Africa. Africa Evidence Week 2026 is calling for your work under the theme Evidence that Moves Africa: Turning African Decisions into African Impact. Submit by 22 November https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines [Tag the AEN] #AfEW2026 #EIDM

Image (choose black or white):

Black Download

White Download

General Posts:

Sample posts

1. 🌍 Your evidence can move Africa! Share it at Africa Evidence Week 2026, online and free from 30 November to 4 December. Submissions close on Sunday 22 November https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines [Tag the AEN] #AfEW2026 #EIDM

2. ⏳ Last call! Only [number] days left to submit your content to Africa Evidence Week 2026. Don't miss your chance to share your evidence with the community https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines [Tag the AEN] #AfEW2026 #EIDM

Image (choose black or white):

Black Download

White Download

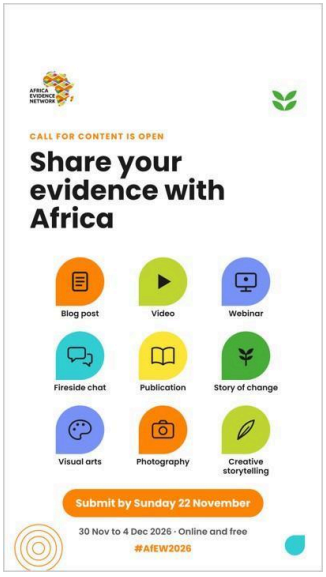

WhatsApp message and Status

Hello everyone 👋 The call for content for Africa Evidence Week 2026 is now open. If you work with evidence, you can share a blog, video, webinar, fireside chat, publication, story of change, visual art, photography or creative storytelling before Sunday 22 November. The Week runs online and free from 30 November to 4 December. Submit here https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines

WhatsApp Status image (choose black or white):

Black Download

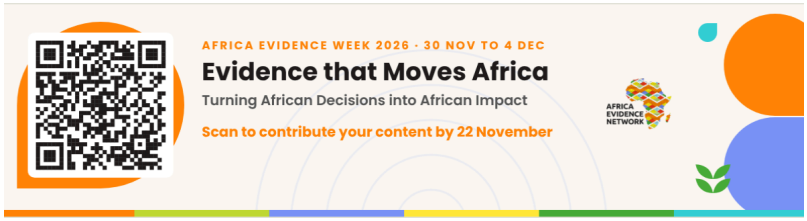

White Download

Email signature banner

Add this banner to your email signature until 22 November. The QR code takes people straight to the call for content.

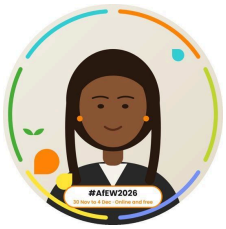

Black Download

White Download

Profile picture frame (on request)

Show your support for Africa Evidence Week 2026 with a frame on your profile picture. Send your photo to afew2026@africaevidencenetwork.org and we will create it for you.

Email to friends and colleagues

Subject: Share your evidence at Africa Evidence Week 2026

Hi [Name],

I wanted to let you know that the call for content for Africa Evidence Week 2026 is now open. The Week runs online and free from 30 November to 4 December 2026, under the theme Evidence that Moves Africa: Turning African Decisions into African Impact.

It is a great opportunity to share your work with the African evidence community, in any of nine formats, from blogs, videos and webinars to live fireside chats, publications, stories of change, visual arts, photography and creative storytelling. Submissions close on Sunday 22 November.

More information and submission
https://africaevidenceweek.org/content-submission-and-guidelines

Hope to see your contribution!