Living area

The sitting room has double-height ceilings and a central fireplace, with seating arranged for large groups without losing intimacy. The dining room sits between the two lounges and opens onto the terrace for meals outside when conditions allow.

To the west, a quieter library and wine cellar has its own fireplace and views down the valley.

Wellness and entertainment

The lower floor is given over to recovery. A 7 x 3 m indoor pool sits beneath bay windows looking out to the garden, with loungers for slower afternoons.

There is also a steam room, sauna, massage room, fitness centre and cinema room, and a hot tub set into the terrace with views of the slopes.
