

 LOPEZ
2027

Nancy Lopez is indisputably the most famous and recognizable woman in golf. Since she exploded onto the LPGA Tour in 1977, the women's game has yet to enjoy another superstar of Lopez's caliber of performance & personality.

Nancy Lopez is revered for the excellence of her performance inside the tournament ropes. At the same time, she is adored for her natural ability to reach out and touch the hearts of her fans in a real and effortless manner. The essence of Nancy Lopez – a world-class athlete, a dedicated wife, a mother of three daughters, a person with true heart and soul – makes her a rare and special woman who can lay claim to an indelible mark in the history books, as well as in the hearts of those who follow her.

A four-time LPGA Player of the Year, and a three-time Vare Trophy winner for lowest scoring average, Lopez is still the only woman to have won the LPGA Player of the Year, Rookie of the Year and Vare Trophy in the same season. That unprecedented performance served as the springboard to the trail of victories that earned her entrance into the prestigious LPGA Hall of Fame in 1987, after just 10 years on Tour. She is still the youngest player to have been inducted into the elusive Hall, and to date, has won almost 50 titles.
