The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

St. Patrick's N.S. is a co-educational national school where all classes from Junior Infants to 6th Class are taught in 7 mainstream classes. We also have three specialised classes supporting pupils with Autism. We are a Catholic school under the patronage of the Bishop of Kilmore, Most Reverend Martin Hayes. We are an inclusive school, and in keeping with our Catholic ethos, we welcome pupils from all faiths and cultures.

St. Patrick's N.S. has a teaching staff of 12.5 teachers. This includes an administrative principal, 7 mainstream class teachers, 3 special educational needs class teachers and 2.5 special education teacher.

We currently have 10 special needs assistants on staff, a school secretary, caretaker and 3 bus escorts.

"Catholic ethos" in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic church, which aims at promoting:

- (a) The full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- (b) A living relationship with God and other people; and
- (c) A philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and
- (d) The formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith.

St. Patrick's N.S. is a Catholic school, we provide religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic church, and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 2(b) of the Education Act, 1998, the Board of Management of St. Patrick's N.S. shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristics of the objectives and conduct of the school.

At St. Patrick's N.S., we are committed to each child's personal development; mental, spiritual, moral, physical and social.

The ethos of the school is that a friendly, relaxed and non-pressurised environment should be created, within which the children can happily perform to the maximum of their abilities. Each pupil will be afforded the opportunity to learn in a stress-free environment.

It is a key aim that when leaving St. Patrick's N.S., every pupil will not only have a sound academic base, but also a good set of moral values, and most importantly a sense of personal identity, self esteem and a respect for the rights and beliefs of others.

The practical day to day rules of the school arise from this philosophy and are necessary if we are to provide an atmosphere where teachers are happy to teach, special needs assistants are happy to support, and pupils are happy to learn.
