

FACTS-FIRST NEWSLETTER

BRIEF OF THE MONTH

WHAT DOES THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION REGULATE?

As Congress considers eliminating the Department of Education, we analyze the Department's ability to influence local education policy decisions.

PROJECT UPDATE

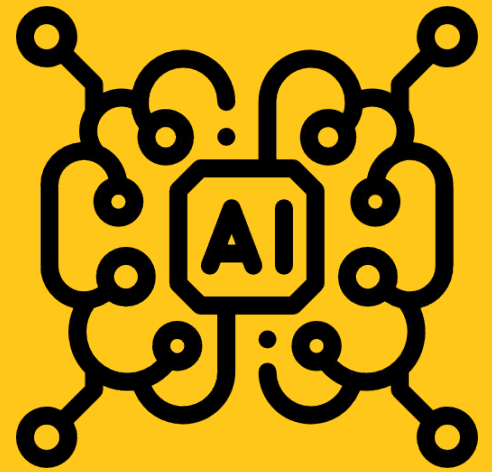

PROJECT MADISON

Project Madison is an AI tool in development that will analyze and summarize the real-world impact of complex legislative proposals for citizens, researchers, and educators.

During the last month, we have developed an early-stage prototype and have begun validating output. We also received a grant from the Institute for Humane Studies for additional coding work.

360° PERSPECTIVES

3840 hours researching

This month, our team published four new briefs to the library on the topics of information silos, inflation, the Department of Education, and abortion access. Focusing in on our 360° Perspective, we are striving to bring a facts-first perspective on what story the data tells to date.

In the coming briefs you'll continue to see data-driven and facts-first analysis from our research team. These policy briefs will help empower the American Public to stay informed on essential policy information that impacts life today.
