Hear from our clients

I am happy to express my satisfaction with our collaboration with Publive. Since joining forces, we have seen an initial spike in our engagement metrics and overall audience reach. During this short period, we have seen growth and stabilize (less volatility) our traffic. We are hopeful that these positive outcomes will grow further. I look forward to the continued success of our collaboration.

Sanjay Sindhwani
CEO

We've experienced a significant increase in page views and unique visitors. The Publive team has been supportive since day one. The platform has helped us eliminate website backend concerns and focus entirely on content. It provides all the necessary integrated tools for running the publication.

Deepak Chauhan
Founder

Working with Publive has been a great experience. Their team seamlessly took over the management of our website, ensuring a smooth and efficient transition. Since migrating to their platform we've seen significant improvements with optimized user experience, faster load times and increased user retention. They are always responsive, proactive and dedicated to finding the best solutions. We're excited about this partnership and look forward to achieving even greater success together.

KAPOOR

Publive stands out as a secure and user-friendly platform tailored for digital publishers. In just six months, it has remarkably amplified our website traffic. The product offerings from Publive, spanning a comprehensive newsletter feature, adept advertisement management, and swift responsiveness to inquiries, solidify its standing as a dependable solution for content teams.

Rashmi Pratap
Founder

In Publive, we have discovered an invaluable ally for both technological and business advancements. Such comprehensive support is particularly beneficial for small to medium-scale news platforms, enabling them to concentrate on editorial content. The Publive product encompasses all essential elements for a news platform, featuring a lightweight, user-friendly design that is both simple to navigate and consume.

Niraj Sharma
Founder & Editor In Chief

Publive provides us with CMS and backend tech services, and they played a crucial role in increasing our website's traffic multifold. By optimizing the backend infrastructure and implementing a user-friendly CMS, Publive enabled our website to load faster, deliver a seamless user experience, and rank higher in search engine results.
