Kate Alpaugh

Kate Alpaugh is a strategic finance executive currently serving as the Chief Financial Officer at commerce delivery platform Shippit, where she leads financial strategy, reporting and capital planning.

Before stepping into the CFO role in July 2023, Kate held various finance leadership roles at Shippit, including Financial Controller and Head of Finance. Previously, Kate was Group Financial Controller at ReadyTech. She holds a Bachelor of Commerce from University of Ottawa, completed an Executive MBA at UNSW Business School, and is a member of Chartered Professional Accountants of Ontario.

Kate combines experience from big four consulting - spending eight years at Deloitte - with technology start-up finance leadership to drive growth and scalable financial operations.
