The World Peace Project, produced by McGraw Productions, is a global movement that uses the universal language of sport to unite people around hope, purpose, diplomacy, and solidarity. The project's programs and events bring together faith leaders, athletes, students, coaches, administrators, and people across all cultures and socioeconomic backgrounds to inspire peace in our communities, schools and at home.

Pope Leo XI

Jubilee of Sport @ The Vatican

June 14-15, 2025

The World Peace Project was inspired by Pope Leo XIV's message at the "Jubilee of Sport" in June 2025, when the Holy Father called on thousands of global sports leaders, pilgrims, and the world to...

Be missionaries of hope, working to build a culture of solidarity, fraternity, and peace through faith and sports."

Legends for Peace represents former US National Team and MLS players, which was created in 2022 as a philanthropic platform to raise funds for global disaster relief organizations, youth soccer programs, and to promote world peace. The SWAG is a high-performance youth soccer development program serving athletes ages 4–11 across Philadelphia and Chester, PA. Together, we are inviting underserved youth to join the legends to participate in a soccer clinic featuring Coach Roberto Ferman, a former member of the New York Cosmos '82 team.
