

(S) To do all such other lawful and charitable things as will further the attainment of the object of the Association.

Provided that:

(i) in case the Association shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts the Association shall only deal with or invest the same in such manner as is allowed by law having regard to such trusts;

(ii) the Association's object shall not extend to the regulation of relations between workers and employers or organisations of workers and organisations of employers; and

(iii) in case the Association shall take or hold any property subject to the jurisdiction of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales the Association shall not sell, mortgage, charge or lease the same without such authority approval or consent as may be required by law and as regards any such property the Council of Management or Governing Body of the Association shall be chargeable for any such property that may come into their hands and shall be answerable and accountable for their own acts, receipts, neglects and defaults and for the due administration of such property in the same manner and to the same extent as they would as such Council of Management or Governing Body have been if no incorporation had been effected and the incorporation of the Association shall not diminish or impair any control or authority exercisable by the Chancery Division or the Charity Commissioners over such Council of Management, but they shall as regards any such property be subject jointly and separately to such control or authority as if the Association were not incorporated.

4. The income and property of the Association shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its object or within the powers as set forth in the Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to members of the Association and no member of its Council of Management or Governing Body shall be appointed to any office of the Association paid by salary or fees or receive any remuneration or benefit in money or moneys worth from the Association.

Provided that nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Association:-

(i) of reasonable and proper remuneration to any member, officer, or servant of the Association (not being a member of its Council of Management or Governing Body) for any services rendered to the Association and of travelling expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out the duties of any member, officer, or servant of the Association;

(ii) of interest on money lent by a member of the Association or of its Council of Management or Governing Body at a rate per annum not exceeding 2% less than the base lending rate of a clearing bank selected by the Council of Management or Governing Body or 3% whichever is the greater;

(iii) of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member of the Association.

5. The liability of the members is limited.

6. Every member of the Association undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association in the event of the same being wound-up while he or she is a member or within one year after he or she ceases to be a member for payment of the debts and
