Global Reach, Local Impact

Vici Energy: Mastering markets and maximizing opportunities.

At Vici Energy, our trading arm, Renovo Energy, connects production with consumption by marketing energy products across Latin America, Africa, Asia, and the Middle East. We work closely with top refineries and distributors in these regions, using our market knowledge to deliver reliable, efficient energy solutions that meet the needs of our clients and partners.

MARKET-DRIVEN SOLUTIONS

We combine market intelligence with operational flexibility to create customized energy solutions. Whether it's crude oil, refined products, or petrochemicals, we ensure our clients receive the right products at the right time.

CUSTOMIZED PRICING

Our pricing strategies are built on advanced analytics and a thorough understanding of market dynamics to meet the unique needs of each client.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Risk management is a fundamental pillar of our operational framework. Through disciplined processes and controls, we mitigate exposures, preserve capital integrity, and maintain resilience amid market volatility.
