

P4Q Instructional Priority Focus 2025-26

If I build capacity through focused professional development and PLC work on science-based ELA curricula and programs, in order to implement specially designed instruction and interventions, then students will be able to increase literacy skills and apply them to cross-curricular content achievements.

