PARENT COORDINATOR NEWS!

Dear Families,

As we wrap up the final week of September, our students are officially in the swing of things. They have adjusted to their routines and are getting into a great rhythm of learning.

As your Parent Coordinator, I am here to ensure you feel welcomed, informed, and supported. Whether you need assistance, resources, or information on upcoming workshops, PTA meetings, and family activities, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Please continue to check ParentSquare for important updates and upcoming fall events. Thank you for your partnership! I look forward to a wonderful month ahead with our P4Q family!

Warm regards,

Ms. Vanessa Murray

Parent Coordinator, P4Q

P4Q@179

We are off to a great start! Students are settling into their routines, learning their schedules, and diving into the curriculum.

From All About Me activities to chapter books like Black Beauty, our classrooms are filled with excitement and learning. We have also been using our creative sides to make some fun projects in art class!

We are so happy to welcome everyone back and look forward to a wonderful year together! 🍎📚

P4Q@213

We are so excited to welcome our students back to P4Q@213 for another wonderful school year!

September was full of creativity, celebrations, and hands-on learning. Students expressed themselves through colorful art projects, celebrated the start of a brand-new school year, and welcomed the beginning of fall with seasonal activities. From creating and exploring to celebrating special moments together, our students filled the month with smiles, learning, and lots of fun! 🍎🍂🎨

We are so excited to kick off another School year at P4Q@270! It has been so wonderful to welcome back our returning students and to meet our new scholars. September has been a busy month of establishing our class routines, forming relationships, completing assessments, and starting our curriculum work. We are looking forward to a year of learning, growing, and having fun together!

P4Q@667 (SKILLMAN)

Welcome back to P4Q@Skillman! We are absolutely thrilled to open our doors and welcome our amazing students back for another fantastic year.

We know that returning to the classroom is a big step, so we've kicked off the year with focused transition practice and fun, engaging icebreakers. Getting comfortable with routines and building strong connections early on is incredibly important to us. These activities are designed to help everyone feel safe, supported, and ready to have an absolutely awesome transition back to school.

Welcome back! P4Q@138 was thrilled to celebrate a fantastic first month back at school. Between learning routines and building relationships, students have been working hard, whether it's learning about apples during science through life skills, learning routines in their classrooms, or enjoying painting!

P4Q@070

Welcome back to a brand new school year! We are excited to see new and returning students with bright smiles. During the month of September, our classes will focus on building strong daily routines, classroom expectations and practicing positive social emotional habits to ensure a smooth transition into their new grade levels. We look forward to partnering with you for a successful school year.

P4Q@161

Welcome back to a new year at P4Q@161! We have had an eventful September getting back into the swing of things. Our students participated in "Passport to Safety," traveling through the building to different locations where they learned essential safety and emergency preparedness skills and collected stamps as they went along. All of our inclusion teachers have been so excited and welcoming to our Pandas, and we look forward to a great year ahead.
