CARTWRIGHT & BUTLER

One family. Five generations. One enduring love for joy-filled food.

From our English heritage rooted in East Yorkshire, stems our love of the Great British Teatime. Think English Afternoon Tea with an adventurous twist.

We've been curating, creating & baking for over 115 years. We make, source, pick and hand-pack only the most delicious treats. From our own bakery and across the UK to the rest of the world, we pride ourselves in presenting the fantastic and the flavoursome.

Taste and quality are at the forefront of everything we do. From the finest ingredients to the delicious flavours we choose, all packaged up with a personal touch, hand-illustrated designs and signature tins, gift boxes and hampers.

And we know what makes a good gift. Our tasty and timeless classics create moments of joy that bring moreish memories to cherish and share.

SUSTAINABILITY

Be Good, Do Good

Cartwright & Butler and Moordale Foods are committed to being responsible brands. Through a set of strong moral practices, we pledge to be good and do good, and we aim to make a positive impact on our customers, our suppliers, the environment, and the wider community.

Packaging sustainability is high on our agenda. We have taken steps to reduce plastic use with recyclable paper tape, hive wrap and are in the process of replacing plastic biscuit trays for card trays, with the first in circulation this year. Our latest range of whole leaf teabags is plastic free and we plan on eliminating single use plastic entirely from our brand.

We currently partner with Too Good to Go and Ecologi to reduce food waste and minimise our carbon footprint. The majority of our products are both palm oil and Sulphur Dioxide free with plans to eradicate these ingredients from all of our products.
