Description: LI Strive's Crocheting Community Class is a hands-on, skill-building class designed to promote creativity, independence, functional math development, and social connection.

Learn the art of crochet while strengthening executive functioning, focus, patience, and problem-solving skills. Each session integrates real-life math concepts into meaningful, project-based learning.

What you will learn:

- Foundational crochet stitches (chain, single, double crochet)
- Reading simple patterns
- Measuring and maintaining stitch counts
- Completing beginner/intermediate projects (scarves, accessories, plushies, small décor)
- Measuring length and width
- Recognizing patterns and symmetry
- Following multi-step directions

Pricing:

- $50/class (includes all materials)

Class Instructor: Noel Grogan
