

SANEG PREMIUM DEX 0W-20

SANEG Premium DEX 0W-20 is advanced performance totally synthetic engine oil developed to meet or exceed the toughest international standards of main American and Asian manufacturers of newest gasoline-fueled and hybrid vehicles. It provides exceptional wear protection and outstanding performance to compact, high-power engines with technologies such as gasoline direct injection (GDI) and turbocharging. It improves fuel efficiency, meeting stringent fuel economy and emissions requirements.

APPLICATIONS

High-performance turbo-charged, supercharged, direct injection gasoline and hybrid engines of passenger cars, light trucks and vans, equipped (or not) with catalytic converter and/or particulate filter. Specifically for General Motors and Japanese and Korean vehicles where a SAE 0W-20 viscosity grade and any of its service classifications are recommended.

Oils formulated to meet the Gen 3 specification are backwards compatible for vehicles that require Gen2 oils.

PERFORMANCE

Outstanding protection against wear and deposits under all operating conditions

High turbocharger protection and fuel efficiency

Very high performance upon cold temperature operation and low-speed pre-ignition (LSPI) prevention, an issue that can cause damage to newer engines

Excellent oxidation resistance to fight against oil degradation and deposit formation

Very good detergent and dispersant properties for excellent engine cleanliness

SPECIFICATIONS

API SP-RC, ILSAC GF-6A
