

Cooked Blue Crab Claws

Callinectes bellicosus

|                                                                  |                        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|
| Product Description:                                             | Cooked Blue Crab Claws |
| HSC Product Code:                                                | 002528                 |
| GTIN:                                                            | 10636880002840         |
| UPC Code:                                                        | 636880002843           |
| Country of Origin:                                               | USA                    |
| Wild or Farmed:                                                  | Wild caught            |
| Pack size:                                                       | 5/2LB                  |
| Case Weight (Net):                                               | 12 lbs.                |
| Case Weight (Gross):                                             | 13.7 lbs.              |
| Case Dimensions:                                                 | 19" x 12.5" x 6.5"     |
| Ti x Hi                                                          | 8 x 8                  |
| Storage:                                                         | Frozen                 |
| Shelf Life:                                                      | 730 days               |
| Sustainability Rating:                                           | Best Choice (MBA)      |
| Key Notes:                                                |                        |
| Cooked, Rich "nutty" flavor, texture is more on the medium side. |                        |

Cooking Tips:
Use as a garnish on gumbo or salads.

