CLASSICAL CORNER

Parent Engagement Series-Invitation

A true feast begins with an invitation. Someone opens the door, prepares a place, and says, "Come."

How to Strengthen Invitation at Home

Practice wonder. Let your child hear you say "I don't understand that yet, but I want to."

Ask invitational questions. Instead of "how was school?" try: "What surprised you today?" "What was beautiful?" "What idea stayed with you?"

These questions turn the focus toward meaning rather than performance.

Build miniature rituals of beauty. A hymn while cleaning up. A short poem at breakfast. A read-aloud chapter before bed. Ten minutes is enough to begin changing appetites.

Cultivate good taste. Pay attention to what is dulling wonder-screens, constant noise, the pace of daily life.

MANNER OF THE WEEK

"How are you?" "Well, thank you. How are you?" is a polite exchange.

On the following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. After greeting them, he related one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry."- Acts 21:18-19
