CLASSICAL CORNER

Series on Chivalry-Part II

Classical Christian education is about formation. Pursuing good ends habitually is what many of the great thinkers from Aristotle to Augustine to Cardinal Newman identified as the purpose of education-orienting our affections and ourselves toward what is True, Good, and Beautiful, and marching steadily toward those ends. We want students well-grounded in the essential and the eternal instead of the secondary and the temporary.

MANNER OF THE WEEK

Look for opportunities to be kind.

"And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all." -I Thessalonians 5:14
