Treading Water

An Inside Look at Being a Water Operator

PRESENTED AT THE BCWWA YUKON WORKSHOP

“We just need you to listen.”

An excerpt from Treading Water

Presented in Whitehorse, Yukon, at the BCWWA Yukon Water & Wastewater Workshop & Trade Show, October 21-22, 2026. This research-based theatre performance brought real water operator stories to the stage, exploring the pressures, responsibilities and relationships behind safe drinking water.
