The Offer/Mission

- Move ~8+ fragile boxes, along with art, from Blacksburg to San Francisco in a rented SUV.
- This involves picking them up, loading, driving to California, and dropping them off inside my apartment.
- Total of 8 days of travel, I previously did SF to NYC in 5 days, so 8 days will be plenty.
- Make your own schedule, book your own hotels, and I'll pay for it.
- You will be provided 4 disposable cameras, 27 shots each (so max 13 pics per day) that I'll develop once you arrive to SF.
- You will need to pick up 2 souvenirs for every city you pass, a set for me, and a set for the VT CRO office for vibes.
- I will pay for all expenses: Rental Car, Gas, Food, Hotels, Ubers to airport, Return Flights, plus $200 per person.

How it works

- Find another person you want to do this with. I don't care who the other person is, as long as you can share a hotel room. They don't have to be in CRO, or even go to VT.
- I will interview each pair, and you will present a rough plan. Include the car you want to take, the rough route, rough schedule (I don't need it detailed), and return flights (to anywhere you want within reason). You can change this all later.
 - Rental car link: here
 - I also recommend maybe spending multiple days in one city, then making up for it by driving 10+ hours (5/person) for a couple days. Nashville was cool, so is Las Vegas.
- I will select a pair
- The pair will then create a list of stuff they have to purchases and I'll give them a card to start making the purchases.
- They will make the trip, specified in the offer/mission section.
- Payment of $200 upon dropping off packages, then drop off rental, and fly to wherever they selected.

FAQ

Who are you looking for?

People who I think will have fun with this. I did a road trip from SF to NY last summer, would love to see some people do it without being rushed.

What Kind of vibes are you looking for?

Exact vibes are "Beat City" by the Flowerpot Men

Why don't you just ship the boxes?

I don't trust the UPS people to not break all my stuff. Also I have weirdly shaped art I don't want to find boxes for. I also figured this would be a great experience for 2 people, so it's worth it.

Why not do it yourself?

I would, my original idea was to rent an RV and do it with some friends, but I'll be in the Nordic countries with my grandmother and will fly to SF only 4 days before my start date.

What will you ask about in interviews?

I will just ask some questions about your plan and learn more about you. I don't expect any good reasons about why someone wants to do this, it's just fun.
