Episode 1

Lead Daily Performance

Symphony of Leadership: Aligning Strategy and Execution

Thursday
26 Feb 2026

Jakarta, Indonesia
Full-day, In-person

Leadership starts with how performance is set, aligned, and sustained every day.

As leaders begin the year setting goals, priorities, and ways of working, performance often falls short when it is treated as a one-time planning exercise rather than a daily leadership discipline.

This episode helps leaders uncover the root causes of performance challenges and translate strategy into clear goals, aligned priorities, and consistent execution throughout the year.

Key Outcomes:

- Identify critical factors that drive team performance
- Apply a systemic process to analyze issues and sustain peak performance
- Co-create purposeful and motivating goals with your teams
- Address performance challenges using a balanced, systems-thinking approach
- Master 30 practical management tools to enhance team performance

Enjoy exclusive access to full-day interactive workshops – including BTS's signature experiential learning, at a highly attractive rate for public enrollment.

Episode 2 Lead the Team

Elevating the Multipliers Leadership Mindset

Thursday
23 April 2026

Jakarta, Indonesia
Full-day, In-person

How the Best Leaders Make Everyone Smarter.

As today's teams — especially Gen Z — seek trust, autonomy, and purpose, leadership impact depends on how well leaders unlock their people's potential. When ownership and initiative are limited, engagement and performance decline.

This episode helps leaders adopt a Multipliers mindset to build trust, multiply team intelligence, and create teams that are engaged, accountable, and high-performing.

Key Outcomes:

- Develop a Multipliers Mindset by understanding what great leadership looks like
- Recognize critical leadership moments
- Develop skills to empower, coach, and multiply team intelligence

Enjoy exclusive access to full-day interactive workshops – including BTS's signature experiential learning, at a highly attractive rate for public enrollment.

Episode 3

Lead the Business

Winning in Business:
Making Decisions That Drive Impact

Thursday
25 June 2026

Jakarta, Indonesia
Full-day, In-person

Balance trade-offs. Think commercially. Drive execution with confidence.

As leaders take on broader responsibility, impact depends on the ability to think beyond one's function and lead the business as a whole. In complex environments, winning requires strong commercial judgment and confident strategic trade-offs.

This episode immerses leaders in a Winning in Business simulation to build data-driven decision-making that balances growth, risk, and performance.

Key Outcomes:

- Develop strategic decision-making skills
- Enhance financial acumen
- Strengthen market sensing and customer-centric leadership
- Improve cross-functional collaboration

Enjoy exclusive access to full-day interactive workshops – including BTS's signature experiential learning, at a highly attractive rate for public enrollment.
