

Your November update

The holiday season is just around the corner, and with the month coming to a close, it's a great time to tick off a few more exhibitor tasks. Completing the required forms now means you can head into the New Year feeling organised and ready to roll into March.

This month we've got reminders, tools, and opportunities to help you prepare—whether it's staying connected on-site, promoting your latest products, or getting your site setup sorted. Take a moment to read through the info below so nothing slips through the cracks.

What you need to know

Internet

Farmside is our official event broadband partner. As experts in rural connectivity they have a Wifi solution that is sure to suit your on-site needs.

- Contact: sales@farmsideltd.co.nz
- Check out their event offer here

Exhibitor Forms

Mandatory forms have been emailed to the main site contact. If you haven't received yours, please reach out to Christine.

Be sure to read these carefully — several forms must be returned to us and/or relevant suppliers.

- You can also access everything via the Exhibitor Hub.

Help Us Promote You

Got something exciting lined up for 2026? New products, demos, innovation, or anything that will grab attention?

We have promotional opportunities through Stuff editorial and our event publications.

- Complete the form here and our team will be in touch to see how we can help get the word out and boost your visibility.

Exhibitor Hub

Your go-to resource for everything leading up to the event — forms, preferred supplier info, timelines, and helpful tools

- Check out the Exhibitor Hub for all the info you'll need including our Exhibitor Handbook, your A-Z guide for exhibiting with us.
