Jordon Barnett is one of those special people who brings a little extra joy wherever he goes. His warm smile and jovial personality make him a welcoming presence at St. Vincent de Paul, and our clients quickly feel comfortable around him. Jordon has a natural ability to make people feel seen and welcomed, often brightening someone's day simply through his friendly attitude and genuine kindness.

Many of our clients also know Jordon by his unmistakable, clear voice as he announces numbers throughout the lobby. Whether the lobby is busy or quiet, you can count on Jordon to make sure everyone knows when their number has been called.
