

Burnette Reservoir Mobile
Turbidity Reduction System
Asheville, NC

Contacts:

Sky Siemers

Interim President

P. 714.824.3470

ssiemers@ahtna.net

Bill Lowe

Project Manager

P. 949.842.4695

blowe@ahtna.net

Office Locations:

Southern California Office
3200 El Camino Real, Ste 240
Irvine, CA 92602
P. 714.824.3470

Northern California Office
3100 Beacon Boulevard
West Sacramento, CA 95691
P. 916.372.2000

www.ahtnausa.com

Ahtna USA is an Alaskan Native Corporation certified as both an SBA 8(a) small disadvantaged business and a Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) through the California CPUC. Ahtna has the experience and capabilities to provide civil and infrastructure construction, new facilities construction and renovation, and environmental remediation services throughout the U.S.

Qualifications:

- Alaska Native Corporation
- SBA 8(a) Certified Small Disadvantaged Business
- $100M/$500M Bonding Capacity
- CMMC 2.0 Certified - Level 2
- UEI: QF7JHNKS9T53
- CAGE: 9CQU9
- NAICS: 237110, 238910, 236210, 236220, 237310, 237990, 562910

Services:

- Water/Sewer Line Construction
- Design-Build
- Building Renovation
- Decommissioning & Demolition
- New Facilities Construction
- Construction Management
- Environmental Remediation
- Operation & Maintenance
- Stormwater Pollution
- Prevention Plans

USACE, Burnette Reservoir Mobile Turbidity Reduction System, Asheville, NC

NAVFAC Southwest, Camp Pendleton Northern Region Tertiary Treatment Plant Construction (NRTTP), San Diego County, CA

- Restore water clarity to ensure a steady supply of clean water to the community
- Reduction of turbidity before it reaches the treatment plant
- Treating and delivering 25 million gallons per day

- Constructed four concrete masonry standing seam metal roof buildings
- This included the Controls, Maintenance, Blower and Solids Handling buildings
- LEED Compliance

CIVIL WORKS

RENOVATION

DEMOLITION

REMEDIATION

Ahtna
USA

UTILITIES