

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS

I Once was... but Now I am...

John 21: 24 - 25

1. Read Matthew 4:18-22. When Jesus called these fishermen to follow Him, they immediately left their nets and went with Him. What might this have meant for them personally, socially, and financially? What does this passage teach us about the nature of Jesus' invitation to follow?
2. Read Acts 4:12-13. The religious leaders recognised Peter and John as "ordinary, unschooled men" but were amazed by their courage and concluded that they had been with Jesus. Why do you think time spent with Jesus had such a noticeable impact on them? How does this connect with other passages such as 2 Timothy 1:7 or John 15:5?
3. Read John 20:31 and John 21:24. John wrote his Gospel so that people would believe in Jesus and have life in His name. What part of Jesus' life, teachings, or character has most shaped your own faith journey so far? Why?
4. As part of our time together on Sunday, we were encouraged to testify to Jesus changing our lives by reflecting on "I once was... but now I am...". What words would you use to finish those sentences? What experiences have contributed to that change in your life?
5. Read John 21:25 and Revelation 12:11. John testified about what he had seen Jesus do, and Scripture encourages believers to overcome through their testimony. What are some simple and natural ways we can share what Jesus has done in our lives with others this week?
6. The message highlighted how Jesus changed John's capacity, courage, and witness. Which of these areas do you most want God to grow in your life right now? What is one practical step you could take this week to cooperate with what God is doing in you?
