WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT THE BLUE STOOPS

“A group of seriously experienced hospitality professionals, who like both their food and their beer, have come together to create their version of a welcoming pub, while attempting not to look like they’ve been trying too hard to get it right, even though they have. As ever with good places to eat, which this very much is, it’s all about the details.”

JAY RAYNER
THE OBSERVER

“The food was good, the beer and wine were terrific, the bill was modest and the whole thing was, in short, like London pubs never really were, despite what anyone says, until about last Tuesday.”

GILES COREN
THE SUNDAY TIMES

“No one would have predicted that the hottest restaurant of 2024 would be a pub.”

BEN MCCORMACK
THE EVENING STANDARD

WELCOME TO THE BLUE STOOPS

An Allsopp's pub will always somehow be rooted in the Blue Stoops, the Burton-on-Trent tavern where my 9-times great-grandfather first brewed Allsopp's Ale in 1730.

Described even in the 19th Century as 'so old no one knows of it having a beginning', the Blue Stoops then vanished so completely that not so much as an etching of the original exists.

Our duty as custodians of the great Allsopp's mark has been to strain every creative sinew to re-imagine and re-create that old home of ours as a place which the world can visit to drink our beer and enjoy our hospitality.

Now the new Blue Stoops is open we'd love to make it a hub for locals to host wonderful events and parties of all kinds!

JAMIE ALLSOPP, FOUNDER

BOOK YOUR PARTY AT THE BLUE STOOPS

The Blue Stoops is launching its party offer.

This marks an opportunity to book an area to enjoy our hospitality as a larger group, principally in the Bar.

The Stoops is well-located, being a ten minute walk from Notting Hill Gate tube (Central, District and Circle Lines) and ten minutes on foot from Kensington Church Street.

We can welcome up to 75 people in the bar.

This document summarises the party offer, but we are glad to organise something bespoke also.

To find out more or to book, please email us on thebluestoops@allsopps.com or WhatsApp us on 07715 834 474.
