Supplementary Regulations

SECTION 1: Introduction

The Elections Office is responsible for the enforcement of the Elections Code ("Code"), including the preparation of forms and monitoring of Candidates' social media activity. Pursuant to that responsibility, these regulations are created to provide rules that supplement the Code.

SECTION 2: Forms

Nomination Packages (F-1) must be submitted to elections@seuo-uosu.com in the PDF provided on the UOSU website. All information in the form must be typed, except for signatures, which may be written electronically.

The prescribed identifying information for the purposes of section 6.2.1 (i) of the Code is as follows:

    i.   First name (preferred and as recognized by uOttawa),
    ii.   Last name (preferred and as recognized by uOttawa),
    iii.   uOttawa email address,
    iv.   Student number,
    v.   Faculty,
    vi.   Position being sought,
    vii.   Preferred language,
    viii.   Pronouns,
    ix.   Signature (or initials, if typed).

The prescribed identifying information for the purposes of section 6.2.1 (ii) of the Code is as follows:

    i.   Full name,
    ii.   Student number,

iii.   Faculty,

iv.   Signature (or initials, if typed).

SECTION 3: Campaign

Social Media Accounts

All social media accounts created for, or which will be used for the purposes of campaigning must be disclosed to the Elections Office within the first twenty-four (24) hours of the Campaign Period.

Disclosed social media account must be made publicly available for the duration of the Campaign Period and Voting Period.

Nomination Solicitation

Candidates may not solicit more than fifty (50) signatures per election.

Expenses

Goods and services received in-kind (free) that are not available to all Candidates shall be reported at their market value as campaign expenses but shall not be reimbursed.

SECTION 4: Implementation

These regulations are issued by the Chief Electoral Officer pursuant to section 3.1.3 of the Elections Code.

Issued: September 10, 2025

Effective: September 10, 2025