AND AIR CONDITIONING INDUSTRIES

THANK YOU FOR BECOMING AN IHACI MEMBER

For over 75 years, IHACI has been dedicated to educating, connecting, and advocating for the HVAC industry. We empower contractors and technicians with the knowledge, community, and voice needed to strengthen our trade and thank every member for being part of something bigger.

AS AN IHACI MEMBER YOU NOW HAVE ACCESS TO:

EDUCATING

No-cost training is offered year-round through IHACI in partnership with Southern California Gas Company, Southern California Edison, and Pacific Gas & Electric. Designed for all experience levels, classes focus on diagnostics, system performance, code compliance, etc. to keep technicians up to date.

PROMOTING

Indoor Comfort News (ICN) is IHACI's industry publication, delivering practical insights, technical updates, and relevant news for HVAC professionals. Covering code changes, energy standards, and industry trends, ICN helps contractors and technicians stay informed and competitive.
