

CALDERA

COLLECTION

The poetry of landscape. A sense of quiet contemplation. An homage to the earth's power. The CALDERA collection echoes the quiet power of nature's most monumental landforms.

Inspired by Ross Didier's deep study of landscapes and their transformation over time, this commanding collection of tables draws inspiration from the way nature shapes itself — volcanic eruptions giving way to vast, tranquil basins, their softened edges telling a story of both destruction and renewal.

Through masterful craftsmanship and a deep respect for materiality, Didier translates these geological forces into a collection that is both grounding and graceful. Crafted fabrication from rich, sustainable oak timber, and expertly carved in such a way that solid forms seamlessly meet fluid lines, CALDERA tables are a study in balance and sculptural elegance.

CALDERA is made to order in a range of different heights as tables, counter tables, high bar and low coffee tables, in a wide range of diameters and optional stain finishes.
