

TERRA FIRMA

COLLECTION

Gather for the harvest. A sophisticated refectory table for the modern age, TERRA FIRMA is a timber crafted invitation to relaxed conviviality. A logical extension of the Tiller Oak seating collection, the table and benches hark back to the time of simple, communal gathering.

Appearing to lean into either direction, the sloping legs of the TERRA FIRMA table is defined by angled, trapezoidal legs, that create an extremely stable form and demonstrates the structural expertise that defines DIDIER's manufacturing ethos.

Meticulously crafted in oak, the collection of tables, benches, and bar tables celebrates the inherent beauty and resilience of the timber, revealing its rich grain, durability and distinctive character. Additionally, TERRA FIRMA's unexpected sculptural engineering allows ease of on-site assembly with just a simple hand tool.

Best complemented by Didier's TILLER Oak seating collection, the TERRA FIRMA range consists of tables, benches and bar tables in a range of lengths, and custom stain finishes.
