

PRAXIS WORKSHOP UPDATE

Dear Dealers,

In just two weeks, it's time: on 8 and 9 November, we'll meet for the Hase Bikes Praxisworkshop 2025. A few places are still available – the registration deadline and ticket sales end on 31 October.

No matter whether you work in management, the workshop, or sales – you'll find workshops that will help you move forward and strengthen our community even more.

Joining us for the first time? During our workshop weekend, you'll learn:

- all the latest news about our models and accessories – including an exclusive world premiere: the adjustable suspension fork for the Kettwiesel ONE,
- practical insights into our new digital tools,
- and hands-on knowledge for workshop, sales, and marketing.

Participation costs €180 per person, including all workshops, meals, and the evening event.

Tickets are available only until October 31 via the Hase Bikes configurator – simply choose the number of tickets, enter the e-mail addresses, and order.
