The International Programs Volunteer assists the global ministry of For The Children by creating resources for existing international programs and making connections for new program development.

For The Children (FTC) mobilizes the local Church to create life-changing moments for children who have experienced relational trauma. With over 20,000 volunteers across 44 states and 9 countries, FTC reaches over 6,000 children in foster care through its mentoring programs and summer camps.

The International Programs Volunteer is an unpaid volunteer position which adheres to the definitions and standards outlined in the FTC Volunteer Handbook.

The International Programs Volunteer serves under the leadership of the International Ministry Leader. By accepting this role, the volunteer agrees that strategy, scheduling, and content developed for FTC become the property of FTC.

Volunteer Responsibilities

- Engagement with International Leaders – Communicate with international leaders concerning resources, prayer requests, service trip inquiries, etc.
- Communication with FTC Staff – Meet with the International Ministry Leader biweekly.
- Resource Creation – Assist in creating helpful resources for FTC's network of international partners.
- Editing – Assist with editing of documents and resources.
- Lead Development – Assist with lead generation and pipeline management for new programs.
