4. Enquiries and project discussions

If you contact us through the website, we'll do our best to respond promptly. However, submitting an enquiry does not create a contract or guarantee that we will be able to take on the project.

Any project work we agree to carry out will be subject to a separate written agreement that sets out the scope, responsibilities, fees and timelines.

Nothing in these terms limits our liability where the law does not allow it (for example, for fraud or personal injury caused by negligence).
