MyHealthily Wins New World Report Software & Technology Award

[ENGLEWOOD, NJ, November 6, 2023] — As New World Report unveiled the winners of their annual Software and Technology Awards, MyHealthily Insurance Solutions is excited to be named Best Healthcare Insurance Broker Software Developer 2023.

Awards Coordinator Taylor Wilson commented: “This year’s Software and Technology Awards has been a pleasure. Working with trailblazers is always inspiring, and I’m sure our winners will succeed well into the future. Here’s to even more excellent achievements in 2024 – and beyond!”

MyHealthily CEO and owner Michael Malhame noted, “We have created an all-in-one platform that changes the way health insurance works, making brokers’ daily lives ridiculously simple. Seeing others take notice of our efforts is rewarding, but our biggest milestone is when agents and brokers tell us their clients are happy. Their small group benefits practice is now profitable thanks to our platform.”
