

System specifications

- Gangway length 25m
- Weight 39mt
- Workability Safe people transfers and cargo up to 3m H_s
- Footprint 6.3 x 7.2m (excl. gangway)
- Cargo capacity 300kg
- HPU 15 or 20ft container
- Certification system Lloyd's Register
- Vessel length requirements >60m

Fully motion compensated system lifting up to 300kg

Can transfer cargo up to 300kg when in cargo mode

Efficient operation with crane and gangway in one

Change from people to cargo transfer mode in less than 30 seconds

Based on proven A-type and E1000 technology

Consult with one of our local specialists for more information

Services

OCC 24/7 support | Project preparation and execution | Maintenance, repairs and operations | Ampelmann Insights: workability forecasts and data service

A300

Flexible cargo lifting A-type

The A300 is the ideal solution to transfer both people and cargo up to 300kg in sea states as high as 3m H_s according to the highest safety standards in the industry. Based on the combination of proven Ampelmann A-type and E1000 technology, the system is fully motion compensated in all six degrees of freedom, resulting in the most efficient and reliable transfer of personnel and cargo to and from offshore structures

A proven system that is safe, efficient, and versatile.

For more information: visit www.ampelmann.nl or e-mail sales@ampelmann.nl.

About Ampelmann

Ampelmann is the industry leader in providing safe Walk to Work services and solutions for the global offshore energy industries. Headquartered in the Netherlands, the company currently operates a large fleet of operational systems in Europe, Africa, Asia Pacific, the Americas and the Middle East. Its innovative and reliable transfer and cargo solutions are designed and tailored to meet the needs of the ever changing offshore industry.

