WHITE WINES

Pavillion Albert Bichot - Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru Domaine Du 2019

The Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru from Domaine du Pavillon has exceptional complexity and elegance that is typical of wines from this Grand Cru vineyard. The wine's mineral character is typical of the Corton-Charlemagne terroir, with a salty and stone-fruit-like note that enhances the wine's freshness. Aging in oak barrels adds a creamy texture, with subtle hints of vanilla, almond, and roasted nuts.

640

Domaine Long - depaquit - Chablis Grand Cru Vaudesir 2017 100% Chardonnay

Vaudésir is one of the seven Grand Cru vineyards in Chablis, and it is located on a southeast-facing slope, benefiting from optimal exposure to sunlight, which helps in ripening the grapes. The soils in Vaudésir are rich in Kimmeridgian clay and limestone, which are rich in fossils from the Jurassic period. These soils provide the wines with a distinct mineral character. This wine is often rich, with a good balance between the fresh, citrusy aromas of lemon, grapefruit, and the riper fruit notes of peach or white fruit.

240

Domaine Hubert Bouzereau - Meurseult Les Charmes Premier Cru 2021

While these wines can be enjoyed in their youth for their vibrancy and fruit-forward character, they will also mature into more complex wines with age, developing buttery, honeyed, and nutty notes as they evolve. The wines can often age for 5-10 years or longer, depending on the vintage. The wine offers ripe fruit such as peach, melon, and citrus, but also has complex notes of roasted nuts, vanilla, and butter, which come from aging in oak barrels.

WHITE WINES

Domaine Philippe Bouzereau - Chassagne-Montrachet Premier Cru Morgeot 2022

Morgeot is located in the southern part of Chassagne-Montrachet, on slopes with south-facing exposure, which helps ensure optimal sun exposure for the Chardonnay grapes. The vines in Morgeot benefit from a favorable microclimate, with good drainage, ensuring that the grapes ripen evenly and express the characteristics of the terroir. Typical of this wine are notes of ripe fruit such as peach, melon, and citrus fruits, as well as vanilla and roasted nuts, which come from aging in oak barrels.

320

Domaine Hubert Bouzereau - Puligny Montrachet Premier Cru Champs Gains 2022

The Champs Gains vineyard is located on the northern side of the village of Puligny-Montrachet, adjacent to other famous Premier Cru vineyards like Les Combettes and Les Referts. The vineyard sits on well-draining limestone soils, which are ideal for producing high-quality Chardonnay grapes. The wine offers aromas of ripe citrus fruits (such as lemon and grapefruit), white flowers, and a mineral character that is characteristic of the terroir of Puligny-Montrachet. It has a creamy texture due to aging in oak barrels, with subtle notes of vanilla, almond, and roasted nuts. The wine is typically aged for about 12 to 18 months in oak barrels, with a portion of the barrels being new oak. This allows the wine to pick up subtle oak characteristics, while the wine's fresh fruit and mineral qualities are not masked by the oak influence.

320

Maison De La Chabotte - Saint-Aubin Premier Cru Sentier Du Clou 2020

Saint-Aubin is a commune situated in the Côte de Beaune region, adjacent to the renowned Montrachet vineyards. The "Sur le Sentier du Clou" vineyard benefits from a south-facing slope, ensuring optimal sunlight exposure. The grapes undergo manual harvesting to ensure only the best fruit is selected. Fermentation occurs in stainless steel tanks, preserving the fresh and crisp character of the Chardonnay. The wine is then aged in oak barrels, which imparts subtle nuances of vanilla and toasted notes, enhancing its complexity.

190

Domaine Rapet - Pernand Vergelesses Premier Cru En Caradeaux 2018

Pernand-Vergelesses Premier Cru "En Caradeaux" in the Côte de Beaune has east-facing, calcareous soils ideal for grape growing. The wine is fresh and vibrant, with notes of lemon, grapefruit, white flowers, light spice, and a distinct mineral character reflecting its terroir.

WHITE WINES

Domaine Roche de bellene - Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru

2020

100% Chardonnay

The Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru vineyard is situated in the Côte de Beaune subregion of Burgundy, renowned for its exceptional Chardonnay production. The vineyard benefits from optimal sun exposure and well-draining soils, contributing to the development of the grapes' rich flavors and aromas. It exhibits aromas of white peach, citrus zest, and delicate floral notes, complemented by a creamy texture and a lingering mineral finish. The wine's complexity and aging potential make it a standout among Burgundy's white wines.

1225

Domaine Roche de bellene - Batard Montrachet Grand Cru 2020

100% Chardonnay

This wine has a complex aroma of ripe fruits such as peach, apple, and citrus, combined with subtle notes of flowers and spices. There are also clear hints of roasted wood and vanilla from the aging in oak barrels, which give the wine an extra layer of complexity and depth. After fermentation, the wine is aged in oak barrels (usually 30-50% new oak) for a period of 12 to 18 months, depending on the vintage. This aging adds complexity and a subtle smokiness to the wine, while the integration of the wood is carefully controlled to preserve the purity of the Chardonnay.
