Mission:
Selden College exists to graduate faithful Christian men and women who are prepared to act justly, skilfully and magnanimously in each and every office, private and public, in peace and war.

What is this policy document about?
This policy is about the level and payment of undergraduate student fees for the 2026-2027 academic year.

Context:
Selden College aims to offer undergraduate and postgraduate awards. The VP Operations of Selden College has overall responsibility for this policy. Few, if any, universities providing undergraduate higher education services are able to do so within the government's cap of £9,250 per student per year. Selden College is a charity and a not-for-profit company.

Aim:
Selden College will not be seeking or accepting Government funding, including student loans.

Process:
Once the student has received the offer of a place to study at Selden College, the student should sign the form to accept the offer of a place. Once the college has received both the signed acceptance form and the deposit, and the requisite 14 day cooling off period has passed, the student is a confirmed student for the 2026-2027 academic year.

2026-2027 Fees:
Undergraduate tuition fees for the full-time 'Liberal Arts' award are £12,875 for the year 2026-27. Tuition fees are expected to rise each year in line with inflation. Fees for the academic year 2027-28 will be published by 1st October 2026 at the latest.

Paying your fees:
The student is liable for payment of all tuition fees.

Fees should be received by the College in full by 31st August, 2026. To encourage payment of full fees there is a £375 discount for students paying fees in full before 31st August 2026.

If you would prefer to pay fees termly in instalments, fees should be received according to the following fee schedule:
£4,875 by 31st August, 2026,
£4,000 by 1st January 2027, and
£4,000 by 1st April 2027

Fee payments should be made via electronic bank transfer using the following details:

Bank:	Metro Bank
Account Name:	Selden College Limited
Account Number:	54442785
Sort Code:	23-05-80
Reference:	Student surname+Tui+Fee (e.g. SmithTuiFee)

If your payment is arriving from an international account:

IBAN:	GB62MYMB23058054442785
SWIFT:	MYMBGB2L

In accepting a place at Selden College, the student agrees that fees will be received by the College by the due dates, and that they are not entitled to start or continue their studies if fees are not paid.

Refund and Compensation Policy:
Please see the detailed Refund and Compensation Policy. In short, fees are due as above and are not refundable, except if a course or student's place is cancelled by Selden College or Selden College ceases to operate. Any paid deposit is not refundable.

Unforeseeable circumstances:
If a student realises they will be unable to pay their fees by the due date, the student may write to the Finance Director before the due date explaining the circumstances and how any outstanding balance will be paid. The Finance Director will then write to the student with a College response. Students may not start or continue with studies if fees remain unpaid and a payment plan is not in place.

Appeals:
If a student is unhappy with a fees policy related decision by the Finance Director a review may be requested within 7 days of receiving the decision. A final email response will be issued by the Principal within 10 working days. There is no opportunity to further appeal after this response.

Bursaries and hardship:

Currently, Selden College is seeking funding for a Bursary Fund. Students may contact the Finance Director regarding such funds as and when they become available. Some outside trusts, organisations and individuals may offer students bursaries towards fees and/or living expenses.
