Congregation Stands*

Gathering Song (10:25 AM) Speak, O Lord

Speak, O Lord, as we come to You To receive the food of Your Holy Word

Take Your truth, plant it deep in us

Shape and fashion us in Your likeness,

That the light of Christ might be seen today

In our acts of love and our deeds of faith

Speak, O Lord, and fulfill in us
All Your purposes for Your glory

Teach us, Lord, full obedience, Holy reverence, true humility Test our thoughts and our attitudes

In the radiance of Your purity Cause our faith to rise; cause our eyes to see

Your majestic love and authority Words of pow'r that can never fail—

Let their truth prevail over unbelief

Speak, O Lord, and renew our minds

Help us grasp the heights of Your plans for us—

Truths unchanged from the dawn of time

That will echo down through eternity

And by grace we'll stand on Your promises,

And by faith we'll walk as You walk with us

Speak, O Lord, till Your church is built

And the earth is filled with Your glory

Entering into the Worship of God

Welcome

————— Bryan Bademan, Elder

*Call to Worship

Bryan Bademan, Elder

From Isaiah 48:20, 44:23

Leader: Declare this with a shout of joy, proclaim it, send it out to the ends of the earth; say, "The LORD has redeemed his servants!"

Everyone: Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it; shout, O depths of the earth; break forth into singing, O mountains, O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed his people, and will be glorified in them.

*Song of Praise: O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing

O, for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace.

My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad
The honors of Thy name.

Jesus, the name that charms
our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace.

He breaks the power of canceled sin,
He sets the prisoners free;

His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood availed for me.

He speaks and listening to His voice
New life the dead receive,
The mournful broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe.

Glory to God and praise and love
Be ever, ever giv'n
By saints below and saints above,
The church in earth and Heav'n.

The Belgic Confession, From Articles 3 & 4

One of the oldest confessions of the Protestant Reformed churches of the Netherlands and Belgium, the Belgic Confession was written in 1561 by Guido de Brès, a Dutch preacher who died as a martyr six years later. The year after the Confession was produced, a copy was sent to King Philip II by petitioners who declared that they were ready to obey the government in all lawful things, but that they would “offer their backs to stripes, their tongues to knives, their mouths to gags, and their whole bodies to the fire,” rather than deny the truth expressed in this confession.

Leader: Christians, what do you believe?

Everyone: We confess that the Word of God was not sent nor delivered “by human will,” but that “men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God,” as the Apostle Peter says. Afterward our God—with special care for us and our salvation—commanded his servants, the prophets and apostles, to commit this revealed Word to writing. Therefore we call such writings holy and divine Scriptures. We include in the Holy Scripture the two volumes of the Old and New Testaments. They are canonical books with which there can be no quarrel at all.

Song of Praise: May the Mind of Christ My Savior

May the mind of Christ my Savior live in me from day to day, By his love and pow’r controlling all I do and say

May the Word of God dwell richly in my heart from hour to hour, So that all may see I triumph only through his pow’r

May the peace of God my Father rule my life in everything,

That I may be calm to comfort sick and sorrowing

May the love of Jesus fill me as the waters fill the sea Him exalting, self abasing, this is victory

May his beauty rest upon me as I seek the lost to win And may they forget the channel, seeing only him

Corporate Confession of Sin

Bryan Bademan, Elder

Everyone: Holy Father, you see us as we are and you know our inmost thoughts. We confess that we are unworthy of your gracious care. We forget that all life comes from you and that to you all life returns. We have not sought to know you or to do your will with our whole hearts. We have not lived as grateful children, nor lived a life of love as Christ has loved us. Apart from you, we are nothing. Only your grace can sustain us. Lord, in your mercy, forgive us, heal us, and make us whole. Set us free from our sin and, by your Holy Spirit, renew our hearts and restore us to the joy of your salvation now and always. Amen.

Silent Confession of Sin

Assurance of Pardon

Bryan Bademan, Elder

Leader: "Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool" (Isaiah 1:18). Your sins are forgiven, all of you who repent of your sins from the heart, and trust in Jesus Christ alone for forgiveness.

Everyone: Praise God for his steadfast love and mercy!

*Song of Gratitude: Christ, the Sure and Steady Anchor

Christ the sure and steady anchor,
In the fury of the storm
When the winds of doubt blow through me,
And my sails have all been torn
In the suffering, in the sorrow,
When my sinking hopes are few
I will hold fast to the anchor,
It shall never be removed

Christ the sure and steady anchor,
While the tempest rages on

When temptation claims the battle,
And it seems the night has won Deeper still then goes the anchor, Though I justly stand accused
I will hold fast to the anchor,
It shall never be removed

Christ the sure and steady anchor,
Through the floods of unbelief Hopeless somehow, O my soul, now,
Lift your eyes to Calvary

This my ballast of assurance,
See his love forever proved
I will hold fast to the anchor,
It shall never be removed

Christ the sure and steady anchor,
As we face the wave of death When these trials give way to
glory,
As we draw our final breath
We will cross that great horizon, Clouds behind and life secure

And the calm will be the better,
For the storms that we endure

Christ the shore of our salvation, Ever faithful, ever true!
We will hold fast to the anchor,
It shall never be removed

Extending Peace to One Another ————— Bryan Bademan, Elder

3-5 year olds are welcome to join Teach Me To Worship downstairs at this time Leader: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

Everyone: And also with you.

You are encouraged to connect with whom you need to in order to make peace before coming to the Lord's Table, or extend the peace to others, particularly newcomers.

Hearing the Word of God

Scripture Reading: Matthew 15:21-28 (ESV) ————— Tess Bademan

²¹ And Jesus went away from there and withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. ²² And behold, a Canaanite woman from that region came out and was crying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely oppressed by a demon." ²³ But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away, for she is crying out after us." ²⁴ He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." ²⁵ But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me." ²⁶ And he answered, "It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." ²⁷ She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table."

²⁸ Then Jesus answered her, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed instantly.

Reader: God's Word is a lamp to our feet, and a light to our path (Psalm 119:105).

Everyone: Glory to you, O Lord!

Prayer for Illumination

David Kuhfuss

Everyone: Guide us O God, by your Word and your Spirit, that in your light we may see light, in your truth find freedom, and in your will discover your peace, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

Tithes and Offerings (Teach Me To Worship children return)

Celebrating the Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper was instituted by Jesus Christ as a way for Christians to worship until he returns. When we eat and drink this meal by faith, Jesus himself is present with us by his Holy Spirit, and he nourishes and strengthens us to live as his disciples in the world. It is a meal that unites all believers in Jesus Christ, and thus we invite all baptized followers of Jesus Christ who are members of a Bible-believing church to participate with us. Children who have professed faith and have been admitted to the Lord's Supper by the leaders of your church are also encouraged to participate.

If you are not yet a baptized Christian, or if you have not been joined to a church, we want you to know that we are so glad that you are here! And yet, we ask that you refrain from participating in this meal. If you are interested in knowing more about what it means to follow Jesus and join his people in the church, any of the pastors or elders would be delighted to meet with you. We also encourage you not to participate if you have an unresolved conflict with another member of the church, and are not pursuing reconciliation, as this meal is to be a sign of our love and unity in Christ.

While not all will eat and drink (because we know that not all here have taken those first steps of faith and obedience to Jesus), we do encourage everyone to join the circle that will form around the sanctuary as a sign that you are all an important part of our church community

Prayers of Meditation for Those Not Partaking of the Sacrament:

If you are not able to receive Communion because you have not yet entrusted your life and eternity into the saving hands of Jesus Christ, you can select a prayer that best describes your current place in the spiritual journey and meditate on it

A Prayer for those who cannot believe in God

God, I have doubted your existence. I have reasoned you away or associated you with a Being that either does not love me or does not have the strength to show me that you care. And yet,

I see today that there are many people who have experienced the same hardships and disappointments in life that I have, yet they believe in you. They say they see your care in their trials and they experience your strength in their hardships. And they say that it all must be true because of the resurrection of Jesus. God, this is all strange to me. Therefore, if you really exist, if you really are the caring and sovereign God these people and their Bible say you are, reveal yourself to me personally through this resurrected Jesus. Amen.

A Prayer for those Searching for Truth

Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

A Prayer of Belief and Commitment

Lord Jesus, I admit that in and of myself I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared to believe, but in you, oh Christ, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared to hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross, and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as Savior and Lord. I commit myself to be baptized into union with you and to follow you all my life as a committed disciple of Jesus, no matter what the cost.

Song to the Cross: Yet Not I, But Through Christ in Me

What gift of grace is Jesus my redeemer
There is no more for heaven now to give
He is my joy, my righteousness, and freedom My steadfast love, my deep and boundless peace
To this I hold, my hope is only
Jesus
For my life is wholly bound to His Oh how strange and divine, I can sing: all is mine
Yet not I, but through Christ in me

The night is dark but I am not forsaken For by my side, the Savior He will stay I labor on in weakness and rejoicing
For in my need, His power is displayed

To this I hold, my Shepherd will defend me

Through the deepest valley He will lead
Oh the night has been won, and I shall overcome
Yet not I, but through Christ in me

No fate I dread, I know I am forgiven
The future sure, the price it has been paid For Jesus bled and suffered for my pardon
And He was raised to overthrow the grave

To this I hold, my sin has been defeated
Jesus now and ever is my plea Oh the chains are released, I can sing: I am free
Yet not I, but through Christ in me

With every breath I long to follow
Jesus
For He has said that He will bring me home
And day by day I know He will renew me

Until I stand with joy before the throne

To this I hold, my hope is only
Jesus
All the glory evermore to Him
When the race is complete, still my lips shall repeat
Yet not I, but through Christ in me

When the race is complete, still
my lips shall repeat

Jesus Paid It All

I hear the Savior say Thy strength indeed is small Child of weakness watch and pray
Find in me thine all in all

Chorus

Jesus paid it all
All to him I owe Sin had left a crimson stain
He washed it white as snow

Lord now indeed I find Thy power and thine alone
Can change the leper's spots
And melt the heart of stone

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow Praise Him, all creatures here below Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost
Amen

Yet not I, but through Christ in me
Yet not I, but through Christ in me
Yet not I, but through Christ in me

Chorus

For nothing good have I Whereby Thy grace to claim I'll wash my garments white
In the blood of Calvary's Lamb

Chorus

And when before the throne
I stand in him complete Jesus died my soul to save
My lips shall still repeat
