

Getting started in NSW

The documents you need to drive with Telride, and where to get each one.

Version 1.0 · September 2026

Upload each document in the Telride app. We'll check them and let you know if anything else is needed. Tick each one off as you go.

Driving a Telride car? You only need the documents in the first section. Driving your own car? You need both sections.

About you: every driver

DOCUMENT	WHERE TO GET IT
☐ Driver licence, front and back Your current, full licence.	Photograph both sides of your card.
☐ National Police Check Nationally recognised.	Australian Federal Police, or any accredited provider. afp.gov.au/our-services/national-police-checks
☐ Driving history record Your NSW driving record.	Service NSW. Search driving record at service.nsw.gov.au .
☐ Driver authorisation Often called a rideshare licence.	Point to Point Transport Commissioner. pointtopoint.nsw.gov.au

About your car: own-car drivers only

☐ Registration certificate Your current NSW registration.	Your registration papers, or Service NSW.
☐ CTP insurance (Green Slip) Current certificate.	From your CTP insurer.
☐ Vehicle inspection report A current safety inspection.	Any Authorised Inspection Scheme (AIS) station.
☐ Comprehensive insurance Optional.	From your insurer.

Tip: the police check and driving record come from government services and can take a few days. It's worth starting those first.
