SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

CENTERVILLE

WELCOME

Valentine's Day or Dia de Amor/Amistad was initiated in 496 A.D. when Pope Gelasius I declared it so to honor Valentino, who was martyred for promoting the idea of faith in Jesus. Because of the similar timing of this day with the Roman festival Lupercalia, much of the flavor of the pagan ideas have colored this day set for the Saint Valentine. The festival Lupercalia goes back before the birth of Christ, so that while John wrote of the love of God and Paul penned 1 Corinthians 13, they were contrasting with the self-centered, lustful, celebration of love they were forced to hear about during this festival. The love of God, the original love, is still as deep and as wide as the ocean springing from an omnibenevolent Deity.

Welcome to Centerville.
