CENTERVILLE
SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

WELCOME

In the 1920’s China was torn by civil war. Missionaries were leaving their stations in the midst of threats and conflict. A faith-filled call was put out for 200 new missionaries in the next two years. Frank Houghton wrote the words of the modern hymn, Facing a Task Unfinished, to inspire prayer and commitment to this daunting challenge. In less than two years, Christians prayed and moved forward in disregarding the difficulties of politics, geography, and war. Less than two years later there were more than 200 new missionaries. Pray and commitment today as we sing these lyrics at the close of our services.

Welcome to Centerville.

Ignite Ohio We have many opportunities to be involved in welcoming others, praying, and giving gifts away. Fill out a connect card and place in the offering plate.
