Subpoena Intelligence

Subpoena response from intake to payment

Manage the full subpoena lifecycle in a single, structured workflow. AI-powered intake, automated document generation, compliance tracking, and fee collection replace manual processes. Teams respond faster, reduce compliance risk, and recover fees consistently.

Consilio LABS

As legal technology evolves rapidly, Consilio Labs helps clients move forward with confidence by developing AI solutions grounded in real legal needs. Through structured Alpha and Beta programs, innovations are tested and refined alongside experts to ensure they deliver practical value clients can trust. Every solution is built with security, defensibility, and measurable impact at the core.

OFFERING AT GLANCE

Secure Private Infrastructure

Subpoena Intelligence runs entirely within Consilio's secure, privately hosted environment to protect sensitive subpoena data and response materials. Processing is performed without public cloud AI services, supporting strict security and regulatory requirements. This foundation ensures subpoena workflows remain secure, auditable, and appropriate for high-stakes, confidential matters.

Smart Subpoena Intake

AI automatically captures critical details from subpoena documents, including case information, jurisdictions, parties, deadlines, and requested records. Support for PDFs, images, and DOCX files with built-in OCR ensures accurate processing of scanned subpoenas. Intelligent classification assesses subpoena type, urgency, and effort required, enabling proactive prioritization.

Compliance-Ready Responses

AI-powered document generation produces jurisdiction-specific response materials, including cover letters, certifications, and objection letters, using extracted matter data. Auto-populated templates apply the correct formatting and language while allowing full review and editing before finalization. Integrated records compliance workflows track collection, redactions, and quality checks to ensure responses are complete, accurate, and defensible.

Compliance Tracking

End-to-end workflow orchestration tracks subpoenas from intake through delivery confirmation and fee collection. Automated deadline tracking and alerts support consistent on-time responses, while integrated billing generates invoices based on work performed with customizable rate schedules and payment tracking. Complete audit trails capture every step of the process, supporting jurisdiction-specific compliance and defensibility.
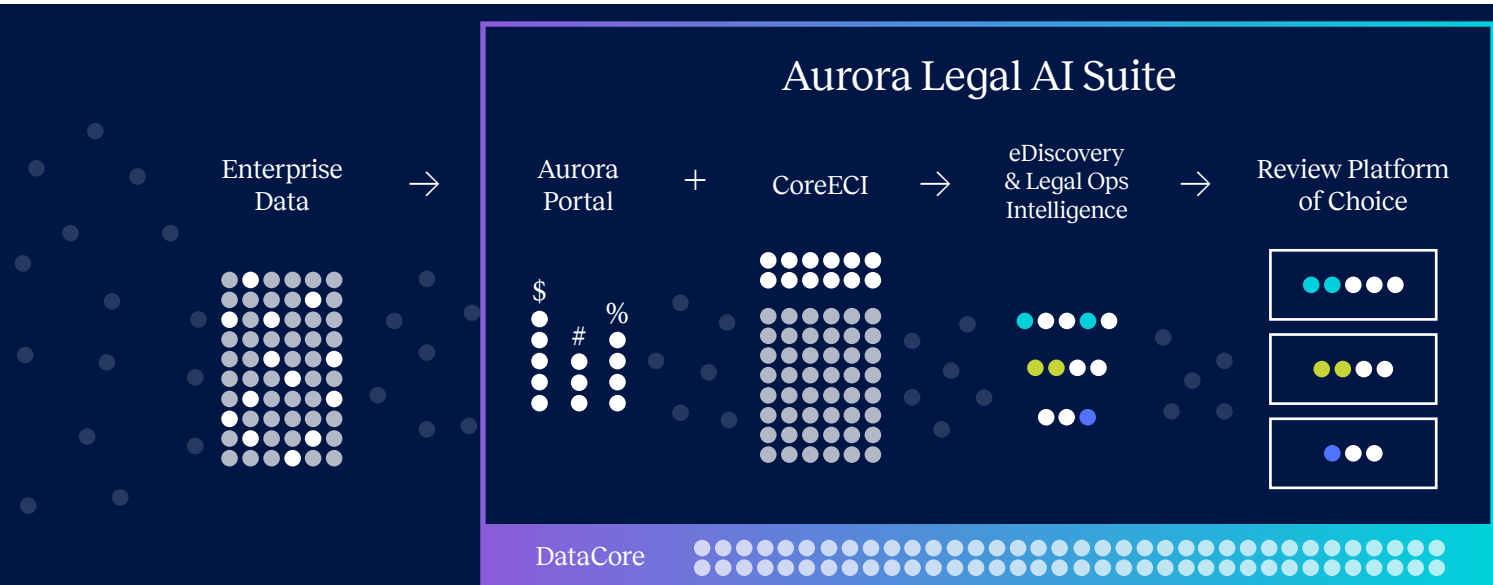

Expert Guided Oversight

Consilio's subpoena management and legal compliance experts guide every stage of the workflow, from intake setup through document generation and delivery tracking. The team works closely with legal teams to tailor templates, validate jurisdiction-specific requirements, and align responses with local court rules. This expert oversight ensures subpoena processing remains accurate, compliant, and defensible.
