Each year, thousands of people submit original fortunes on our site, sharing love notes, motivational quotes, and inspirational sayings to guide them on their journeys. We receive words expressing difficult emotions like love, and our users often look for ways to capture these feelings without directly saying "I love you." Our fortune gallery has over 500 sayings, with the most popular being our love fortunes, as they offer many ways to express affection without explicitly stating it. Here are seven traditional fortune cookie love messages: "The love of your life is right in front of your eyes," "Behind this fortune is the love of my life," "You have a secret admirer," "Love because it is the only true adventure," "The love of your life will appear in front of you unexpectedly!," "An old love will come back to you," and "Your love life will soon be happy and harmonious." When love inspires someone to pursue their dreams, we often see fortunes like "Follow what calls you," "You're intoxicating when you do what you love," "Be passionate and totally worth the chaos," "You will know it when you see it. It will know you when it sees you," "Do what you love. The rest will fall into place," "Follow what you love and see what turns up," "The middle of the process is no place to determine the end of it," "You should def go for it," "Enter unknown territory," and "Everything that is was first a dream." Reminding someone that they deserve love and care is one way to show genuine interest in their well-being. Here are six fortunes that prioritize self-love, including "Make self-care a non-negotiable" and "When you love yourself, people who don't love you back become less interesting." Sometimes, people need permission to be themselves. Seven more fortunes offer strength for individuals to own their identity, such as "Self-acceptance > self-improvement" and "To be found, stop hiding." Expressing love traditionally can be done through romance. Putting a love note in a Sphere Secret Ring is one way to share affection. Finding the right love message can be tricky, especially on special occasions. Some famous love quotes include Shakespeare's "If music be the food of love, play on" and Maya Angelou's "In all the world, there is no love for you like mine."
