Derek Grier is a prominent clergyman and pastor of Grace Church in Dumfries, Virginia. He was born on May 28, 1965, in Long Island, New York, and later studied at Howard University from 1983 to 1988. Grier holds several degrees, including a master's in education and a doctorate in practical ministry. As a respected leader, he has mentored Christian leaders and business owners, and his church broadcasts on various networks worldwide. Grier's leadership has contributed to Grace Church's remarkable growth, with Outreach Magazine listing it as one of the fastest-growing churches in 2013 and among the top 100 fastest-growing churches in America in 2014. In addition, he founded the Dumfries Youth Center, which serves hundreds of high-risk children in the area. Derek Grier Ministries has taken the digital world by storm with millions of monthly viewers across various social media platforms. His radio and TV shows have also gained a massive following in the US and globally. In 2008, he was ordained as a bishop by Dr. Myles Munroe. Today, he mentors hundreds of Christian leaders through the Renaissance Leadership Network. With his unapologetic approach to preaching, Bishop Grier has led Grace Church into unprecedented growth. In 2023, it was listed among the top 5 fastest-growing churches in America by Outreach Magazine, with an impressive percentage gain. He founded Virginia Christian College in 2011 and serves as Chancellor. His most recent book, "When God Stops," was published by Thomas Nelson Publishing in 2019. Bishop Grier's National Unity Weekend aims to bring racial unity through gospel teachings and community service each June weekend. He lives in northern Virginia with his wife, Yeromitou, and their two adult sons and daughter-in-law.
