BIOTECH & PHARMA
INNOVATORS ADVANCING
OLIGONUCLEOTIDES AND PEPTIDES IN ASIA

The Asia Pacific region is rapidly emerging as a global powerhouse for oligonucleotide and peptide innovation, driven by a strong convergence of advanced biotechnology capabilities, growing investment ecosystems, precision medicine demand, and expanding manufacturing infrastructure. From established pharmaceutical leaders in Japan and South Korea to fast-scaling biotech innovators in China, India, Singapore, Taiwan, and Australia, the region is accelerating the development of next-generation therapeutics across RNA-based medicines, peptide therapeutics, cell-targeting platforms, and novel drug delivery technologies.

This eBook highlights the organizations driving breakthroughs across RNA therapeutics, peptide engineering, antisense oligonucleotides (ASOs), siRNA, mRNA platforms, peptide-drug conjugates, targeted delivery systems, and next-generation biologics. From globally recognized pharmaceutical giants to emerging biotech disruptors, these companies are redefining therapeutic possibilities in oncology, rare diseases, infectious diseases, metabolic disorders, immunology, and regenerative medicine.
